Message On Farm Program

President Asks Congress to Pass Long Range Laws Helpful to Farmers

36—MESSAGE ....

WASHINGTON, May 14 —(AP) — President Truman asked Congress today to pass long range farm legislation geared to the greatly increased productive capacity of American farms.

Such a program, he said in a special message to the legislators, should have a price support system designed to guide farm production to the farmers' market.

He said the "fundamental National Policy" of farm legislation should aim for "organized, sustained, realistic abundance."

Mr. Truman added:

"A policy of abundance, includes some factors that lie outside the field of agriculture. The maintenance of high levels of employment and the maintenance of export outlets are prime essentials."

The government now has a wartime farm program. The major price supporting phases of it will expire December 31 unless congress acts at this session.

A General Outline

The president gave only a general outline of what he thought the long range legislation should be.

These general proposals were closely in line with provisions of a long-range program approved Thursday by the Republican dominated senate agriculture committee and urged last fall by the agriculture department.

Mr. Truman did not recommend as agriculture department officials had expected, a boost of $75,000,000 in the $2225,000,000 soil conservation fund proposed by the GOP congress. In his January budget message, the president urged $300,000,000 for soil subsidies to farmers.

Set Forth Policies

The president said farm legislation should have these policies:

(1) Sound and lasting economic well being for the farm population with parity of prices and income in relation to the rewards in other fields.

(2) An agriculture that will supply ample products for domestic needs, for sufficient reserve stocks and for export present and rising standards of living.

(3) Use of farm resources in a manner that will insure their permanent maximum productivity.

(4) Improved levels of nutrition in living for all the people.

(5) Ever increasing efficiency in production and distribution.

(6) A better living for small farmers, tenant farmers, sharecroppers and farm labor.

Out For Farm Vote

The president's message was aimed, Democratic leaders have said, at laying the groundwork for the party's campaign to win the farm vote in November.

Back of the strategy was said to be a belief that congress will not pass a permanent program at this session, but will enact only a one-year extension of the present program with perhaps some modification.

860 Forest Fires in April

JEFFERSON CITY, May 14.—(AP)—Eight hundred sixty forest fires burned 54,067 acres in Missouri during April, Forester George O. White of the State Conservation Commission reported today.

They brought the year's total to 1,572 fires, which burned 76,879 acres—one of the worst spring records in years. White estimated half of the blazes were deliberately set. Dry weather and strong winds also accounted for the big toll.

White said fire starters organized their efforts this year. In some cases two or three miles of fires were set broadside to the wind within 15 minutes.

Besides the actual blazes, fire fighters investigated 2,656 false alarm smokes.

White said the forestry division plans to train its men in law enforement to catch firebugs. During the spring burning season an effort also will be made to hire special agents.

Confer With Governor On Strike Situation

JEFFERSON CITY, May 14—(AP)—Sheriff Gus Hillix of St. Joseph conferred with Gov. Phil M Donnelly today about law enforcement problems caused by a strike at the Armour and company meat packing plant near St. Joseph.

The governor said the sheriff did not ask for state help from the Highway Patrol or the St. Joseph police force, a state agency.

"There wasn't any news in it," Donnelly said.

Donnelly said the sheriff's visit was intended to give him a first hand report of strike conditions.

Building Soil Saving Dam

The above picture shows the start of the soil saving dam built last Friday at Sherman Pritchard's farm near Ionia. The Pritchard's farm is one of 50 in the Pettis County Balanced Farming Association. Over 50 sacks of cement, 10 yards of gravel and a roll of hog wire was used in the structure. Several neighbors helped with the construction. The men shown at the top from left to right are Lon Mahnkan (a neighbor), Wayne Pritchard (son of Sherman) and Fred Venrick of the Portland Cement Association. Those below are Herman Hall, Extension Agricultural Engineer of the University of Missouri, Roy I. Coplen, county agent, Sherman Pritchard (facing camera), Melvin Schroder, a neighbor, and Joe Knipp, a terracing contractor from Tipton, who is now building terraces and outlets in Pettis county. Assistant County Agent E. P. Kruse was also helping and just his arm may be seen past Mr. Knipp.

Nat'l Guard is Called Out to Restore Order

Minnesota Governor Was Asked for Help In Strike Situation

NEWPORT, Minn., May 14—(AP)—Governor Luther Youngdahl called out the national guard today to restore order in the strike-bound packing plant areas of Newport and South St. Paul.

Violence flared at the Cudahy plant here last midnight. A mob of 200 men forced its way into the plant. About thirty of the 50 maintenance men were seized as hostages. The others ran to safety or hid in the plant. Most of the hostages had been accounted for by noon.

Adjutant General Ellard Walsh said motorized and mechanized units of the national guard would be dispatched to the two towns. They probably won't arrive until late today or tomorrow.

South St. Paul was the scene of disorders the past two days when pickets defied a court order prohibiting mass picketing. They refused to let policemen through their lines.

No Union Comment

Milton Siegel, field representative for the CIO United Packinghouse Workers, said the union had no comment on the Cudahy situation. The union called a nation wide packing plant strike March 16 over a wage dispute.

Two members of the Cudahy maintenance crew were in Ancker hospital in St. Paul today. Both Vernon Spaulding, 44, and Carl Heier, 32, were hired yesterday for maintenance work. They are from Webster, Wis.

They told a newspaper reporter they were asleep on cots in the rear of the main Cudahy building when the mob surged in.

Couldn't Estimate Number

"I kind of knew what it was," Heier said. "I tried to dress hurriedly but only had my shirt and pants on when the mob came in. There were so many I couldn't estimate the number. They were all around us and most of them were carrying clubs. The only way we could escape was to run the gauntlet of the mob. All of them were swinging clubs at our heads."

Spaulding said both he and Heier were knocked down several times. He said they ran down a road while they were groggy from the beating. They sat down to rest after walking miles, he said. Then a car drove up and one of the occupants yelled: "Are you ready to quit now?" He said both replied, "We certainly are."

They were placed in the car and driven to a hotel. When the might manager saw their condition he called police and they were driven to the hospital.

Both said they were unable to identify their attackers or the men who took them to the hotel.

Louisiana Senator Dies

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—Senator John H. Overton, of Louisiana, 72, died early today at Bethesda naval hospital. He underwent a serious abdominal operation May 5.

Could Call Strike Quickly

NEW YORK, May 14—(AP)—A strike of 25,000 long distance telephone operators could be called in a week or less, a spokesman for the CIO American Union of Telephone Workers said today.

The "week or less" estimate was made today despite a previous union statement that at least two weeks would be necessary before arrangements could be made to put a strike into effect.

Meanwhile, a federal mediator prepared to meet here with American Telephone & Telegraph Co. long lines officials to "discuss all possibilities." He said he did not know whether the conference would lead to a resumption of joint mediation sessions.

The union laid plans yesterday for a 42-state walkout over wage-hour and other contract demands. No date has been set for a strike.

97th Day in Coma

FANTA MONICA, Cal, May 14.—(AP)—Twenty-year-old Ann Marie Cox today entered her 97th day in a coma which began when she suffered a brain injury in a traffic accident.

Mrs. Cox has not regained full consciousness since February 8, when she was thrown 80 feet from a motorcycle which had collided with a truck.

Will Broadcast And Televise Truman Talk

Will be Made at Dinner Meeting of Young Democrats

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—President Truman is billed for a political address tonight before a dinner of young Democrats.

The chief executive, adhering to his new routine of "off-the-cuff" speaking, will talk only from notes in a 15-minute appearance.

Presidential Press Secretary Charles G. Ross said the address will be a "Democratic political speech" on domestic issues.

It will be televised, and broadcast over the NBC, ABC, MBS and CBS networks starting at 8:30 p. m. (CST).

House Speaker Martin (Mass) sounded a new invitation for anti-Truman Democrats to join the Republican party in a speech here last night in which he declared:

"The Republican party welcomes the help of millions of patriotic Democrats who never have had any more sympathy for much of the new deal than we have had."

Stassen Adds Delegates

In the face for the GOP presidential nomination, Harold E. Stassen ran his total of pledged and claimed delegates to 73 yesterday when late tabulations from Florida's May 4 primary put four convention votes in his column. A fifth appeared possible for him.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey picked up one to give him 126 delegates. It takes 548 to nominate.

Dewey and Stassen both are campaigning in Oregon for that state's 12 delegates to be filled in next Friday's primary.

The paths of Dewey and Stassen crossed today, but they were no nearer agreement on terms of a proposed debate.

Passed on Highway

The rival Republican presidential aspirants passed each other on the highway east of Portland, Ore. As Dewey returned in a charter bus from a state-wide campaign and Stassen set out by automobile on a tour of his own.

On the proposed debate—to which agreed earlier — Stassen still was holding out for a public platform discussion of all campaign issues. Dewey was insisting it be a radio debate on the question of outlawing Communism.

Three days of discussion by their aides in Portland have failed to solve the problem.

The indictment is in two counts.

Asks Government to Indict Her And She May Get Her Wish

WESTPORT, Conn., May 14.—(AP)—The United States today accepted Miss Vivien Kellems' invitation to do something about her non-payment of withholding taxes by filing a $1685.40 attachment against her property.

The action was taken by Thomas . Griffin, acting collector of internal revenue for the Connecticut district.

Miss Kellems is in business with her brother, first announced last year that she was going to stop deducting withholding taxes from her employes' pay. She repeated the threat on several occasions, and at the end of the first quarter of this year carried it out.

"I am deliberately violating this law," she said on May 1 in a letter to Treasury Secretary Snyder. "I respectfully request that you please indict me."

She told Snyder the withholding tax law was "not only unjust and tyrannical in concept, but it is in direct violation of the constitution of the United States."

The attachments, filed at the office of Mrs. Lois R. Clark, town clerk covers the Kellems shop on Riverside avenue.

Miss Kellems, asked if she had anything to say about the government's action, replied, "Not just yet."

Battle Over Air Academy

Mo. Congressmen Want One at SAAF; Texans Talking For Randolph Field

By Charles Haslet
AP Special Washington Service

WASHINGTON, May 14 —(AP)—A congressional battle over the location of a proposed United States air academy appeared in the making today.

Rep. Short (R-Mo.), a high ranking majority member of the House Armed Services committee, said he is "stronger than horse-radish" for bills introduced by Senator Kem (R-Mo.) and Rep. Marion Bennett (R-Mo) to establish an air academy at Sedalia Air Base in Missouri.

The Bennett bill was sent to the armed services committee.

Meanwhile, however, Texas congressmen are seeking establishment of an academy at Randolph Field in that state.

Last Week Rep. Kilday (D-Tex.) said Secretary of Air Symington had approved such a plan. He said it was contemplated that $82,000,000 would be spent to expand Randolph Field and added he would press for passage of his bill to authorize the program.

May Have Opposition

Short told a reporter that with three branches of the armed services, he believes there should be an air academy as well as naval and military academies.

"But I expect the proposals to establish an air academy will run into stubborn opposition," he commented.

"I am really pleased that Senator Kem and Rep. Bennett have introduced the bills to locate one at Sedalia. The air base there is a wonderful one and there could be no better location. It is right in the center of the United States. It is between Kansas City and St. Louis and the personnel would be well satisfied there."

Russia Calls Officers Home

BERLIN, May 14.—(AP)—Western allied authorities said today they have received reports that the Soviet military administration in Germany is undergoing a purge. Dozens of high officers are being recalled to Russia, the reports said.

Details on the extent of the alleged reshuffle or the reasons for it vary. The American-licensed Dena News Agency estimated that 85 high Soviet officers would be replaced in Germany.

The purge reportedly is being conducted by a political general named Scharnov, who recently was appointed political advisor to Marshal Vassily D. Sokolovsky, Russian commander in Germany.

Scharnov's appointment to replace an advisor named Malinin was the second change in high Soviet ranks noted here in recent weeks. The other was the replacement of Lt. Gen. G. S. Lukjantschenko, chief of staff to Soolovsky, by a Maj. Gen. Barinov. There has been no official Russian comment on these changes.

Rumors have persisted that Sokolovsky himself is in trouble with the Kremlin. He has been summoned twice to Moscow recently for consultations.

Tiny Girl Baby Born in Oregon

PORTLND, Ore., May 14—(AP)—Portland doctors disclosed today the birth of a girl so tiny she weighed only 1 pound 4½ ounces eight days later.

She will be the smallest baby on record in this country if she lives to be a year old, said Paul R. Hanson, Emanuel hospital administrator, and Dr. S. Gorham Babson.

The girl was born three months prematurely on April 7. Her condition was so precarious she was not weighed until April 15.

Now 36 days old, she is kept in an incubator. Dr. Babson estimated survival chances at "better than 50-50."

The names of the parents were withheld at their request.

Truman to Attend Game

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—President Truman will attend the Army-Navy baseball game and the Navy-Cornell crew races at Annapolis Saturday, May 29, the White House said today.

After seeing the crew races that morning, Mr. Truman will throw out the first ball at the baseball contest between the two service academies in early afternoon.

Seven Months' School Term

KANSAS CITY, May 14.—(AP)—Seven-months school term next year for Kansas City schools is being planned by the board of education. An eighth month is a possibility.

There is only enough revenue in sight to pay for seven months of operation, Dr. Harold E. Moore, superintendent of schools, told the board last night.

Voters have rejected two proposals for emergency school tax levies—the first for 8½ mills, and the second for 7 mills. Next year's budget had been set at $11,508,575 for the regular 10-month term, but Moore said there was only $9,181,900 revenue in sight.

The board said all employes, including teachers and city librarians, would receive seven-tenths of their normal pay.

Teachers will be offered contracts for seven months, with an eighth month optional, depending on revenues received.

The contracts contemplate an eighth month so that the school district can qualify for about $2,000,000 in state aid that probably would be denied if a shorter term was adopted, the board said.

Plane Wrecks Claim Lives of At Least 20

Among Dead is Daughter of Former Envoy to London

By The Associated Press

Six plane mishaps on four continents have claimed the lives of at least 20 and perhaps 55 persons.

Best known among the dead was Lady Hartington, the daughter of Joseph P. Kennedy of Boston, former U. S. Ambassador to London. She died near Privas in southern France with three others, including Lord Fitzwilliam, the eighth earl of his line. The other two were crewmen.

Only one known survivor came through the six mishaps.

Thirty-five were missing.

The other crashed planes were in the Belgian Congo, Saudi Arabia, Alaska, Massachusetts and Switzerland.

Wreckage Found

A Sabena airliner which disappeared yesterday over the Belgian Congo with 25 passengers and six crewmen was found wrecked in the African colony. The plane was a DC-4 on the Belgian Congo-Belgium run. The airline's office in Brussels said nothing was known of casualties.

A U. S. B-29 Superfortress fell in Saudi Arabia, 120 miles northwest of Dahran. The U. S. Air Force said in Wiesbaden, Germany, that nine bodies have been found. Four persons are missing and one survivor has been found. The plane apparently crashed Tuesday on a training run between Germany and the Asian airport.

Crashed In Alaska

Two U. S. Air Force fighter planes exploded and crashed at Anchorage, Alaska, yesterday. Both pilots were killed. The planes were in a group of four maneuvering four miles above. Both went into almost vertical dives and were blasted in a rending explosion about 8,000 feet up.

Three crewmen of an army C-54 transport plane were killed yesterday in a crash at Northampton, Mass. The plane burst into flames during a rainstorm, dug a hole eight feet into a soggy field and splattered wreckage over five acres.

Two Swiss fliers were killed practicing emergency landings at Locarno, Switzerland. One was Maj. Piste Hitz, who helped rescue 12 Americans stranded 9.000 feet up on Aguli glacier in 1946.

Dewey and Stassen Debate on May 17

PORTLAND, Ore., May 14.—(AP)—Gov. Thomas E. Dewey and Harold E. Stassen will meet in a radio debate here Monday, May 17, on the question of outlawing communism.

A quick exchange of statements today ended what appeared to be a threat to holding the long-discussed actual meeting of the two candidates for Oregon's Republican preferential preference in the May 21 primary election.

Killed By Car

KANSAS CITY, May 14.—(AP)—Mrs. Georgia Plaskett, 36, was struck and killed by an automobile a block from her home on U. S. Highway 40 at the east edge of Kansas City.

Britain's 31-Year Rule of Holy Land Ends At Midnight

Jews Proclaim an Independent State; First Hebrew Nation In 2,000 Years

LAKE SUCCESS, May 14—(AP)—The political committee of the special Palestine Assembly voted today to send a United Nations mediator to the Holy Land. The vote was 37 to 0, with 15 abstentions.

TEL AVIV, Palestine, May 14—(AP)—The state of Israel, first Hebrew nation in 2,000 years, was born today in a Jewish declaration of independence asserting the "historic right" of the Jews of Palestine to reconstitute their national home.

The proclamation by the national council is effective at one minute after midnight, when the Britain's 31-year rule of the Holy Land ends. The British high commissioner already has left Palestine soil for a British cruiser, and the British mandate government has left the Holy City of Jerusalem.

While Jewish forces and soldiers of the surrounding Arab countries prepared for war, the Jews proclaimed their "right to a life of dignity, freedom and labor." The declaration said this right was recognized by the United Nations.

CAIRO, May 14—(AP)—Moslems throughout Egypt were urged today to pray for "the victory of our armed forces in their struggle to liberate Palestine and save holy places."

An Egyptian army source said a stand-by order was issued to the army. Soldiers guarded public installations. Police said lists of "dangerous elements" were prepared for possible internment of such persons following the expected declaration of a state of siege tonight.

Face to Face Now

The Arab league, meanwhile, planned to set up an administration—not a state—of their own in Palestine to function with occupying Arab forces if and when Palestine is invaded.

(In London the Arab office declared the termination of the British mandate had created a disastrous situation in the Holy Land, but "will at least give the Arabs the opportunity which they have never had until now of resisting the invaders face to face and without the intervention of a foreign power which has hitherto given them its protection."

(The general secretariat of the Arab League has proclaimed a state of war existing with Palestine Jewry.)

As the Jewish state was born, the Arabs wrested their first real victory in Palestine. Arab, neutral and Jewish sources confirmed that Arab Legionaires, supported by 2,000 tribesmen from the Hebron hills, wiped out four Jewish colonies in the Kfar Etzion bloc south of Jerusalem, athwart the Arab invasion from the south.

200 Jews Died

The informants said 200 Jews died in the battle, which ended last night. A number of prisoners were taken, including four physicians who were parachuted to aid the wounded yesterday.

The Jewish agency, declaring the Arabs had killed prisoners of war despite promises of adherence to international law, had urged the United Nations truce commission last night to intervene in the battle.

The battle for the Bab El Wad gorge, lifeline Jewish link between Tel Aviv and Jerusalem, raged unabated.

"The land of Israel was the birthplace of the Jewish people," said the Jewish declaration of Independence. "Here their spiritual, religious and national identity was formed. Here they achieved independence and created a vulture of national and universal significance. Here they wrote and gave the Bible to the world."

Told of Struggles

The declaration told of the exiles from Palestine, the centuries-old struggle of the Jews to regain the land of their fathers. It recalled the first Zionist congress of 1897, inspired by Theodore Herzl's vision of a Jewish state, and said the right of the Jews was reaffirmed in the mandate given Britain by the League of Nations.

"The Nazi holocaust which engulfed millions of Jews in Europe," it said, "proved anew the urgency of reestablishment of a Jewish state which would solve the problem of Jewish homelessness by opening the gates to all Jews and lifting the Jewish people to equality in the family of nations."

Cancels Engagement

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 14—(AP)—U. S. Senator Glen Taylor, third party vice presidential candidate, has cancelled a speaking engagement here Sunday because of a segregation rule on public meetings in municipal auditorium.

Important Events In The World Today

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—Secretary Sullivan asked congress today to let the navy speed work on guided missile ships and a giant 65,000-ton aircraft carrier.

He testified before a house armed services committee in support of a bill which would allow the navy to stop construction of 13 ships and divert approximately $300,000,000 to vessels of newer types. The 13 ships already have cost $197,000,000, Sullivan said.

AMES, Ia., May 24.—(AP)—A $1,850,000 addition to the Ames laboratory at Iowa State College was authorized today by the atomic energy commission.

W. W. Waymack, a member of the commission, said the funds are for a new atomic research building costing $1,500,000, with $350,000 for equipment.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—A new tug-of-war between the rules and armed services committees threatened today to stymie house action on draft legislation.

Even as the clash developed the house received President Truman's request for $2,434,441,000 more for the expanding defense program. This brings total defense estimates to over 14 billions for the year starting July 1.

Although congress generally has been going along with Mr. Truman's requests for military funds, it has not approved his plans for increasing the man power of the armed forces by a temporary draft and universal military training.

MILWAUKEE, May 14.—(AP)—If no peaceful decision on a new coal contract has been reached by June 15, when congress is due to recess, Rep. Hartley (R-N. J.) plans to ask lawmakers to stay in session.

The co-author of the Taft-Hartley act told his plans to the Wisconsin Manufacturers' Association last night.

Hartley also proposed applying anti-trust laws to John L. Lewis or any other labor leaders "bigger than the nation.

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—President Truman declared today renewal of the reciprocal trade program "without crippling amendments" is necessary for America to maintain its world economic leadership.

Cancer Drive a Worthy Cause

Approximately $2,350.00 has been collected for the American Cancer Society through the Pettis County drive according to the chairman, Arthur W. Klang. The quota for Pettis county is $3,000. Contributions for this worthy cause may be sent to Arthur W. Klang, 312 South Ohio avenue or Clarence Carter, Sedalia Bank and Trust company.

About 30 people, men, women and children were examined at the Cancer Clinic at Bothwell hospital last month and several of these cases were found to be malignant.

The American Cancer Society is working to educate people that prompt action based on accurate information will save lives. The final goal is a cure for cancer. Cancer victims need the best care —research costs money and the money raised through this campaign goes for this purpose.

Chamber of Commerce Plans Awards for Courteous Workers

The meeting of the board of directors of the Sedalia Chamber of Commerce was held today noon in the Palm Room of the Bothwell hotel, with the president, R. M. Overstreet, presiding.

An extensive report was given by Noel Tweet on the SAAF proposition, mentioning also the bill introduced by Senator James P. Kem to use the field for an air academy. Tweet stated it would be a staple institution which would held Sedalia, particularly during a depression or recession; it would be entirely different to a training base as it would be on the basis of West Point and Annapolis and would not be used just during times of emergency.

The Chamber of Commerce discussed plans for a courtesy campaign, with awards to be given the most courteous Sedalians in all fields, clerks in stores, bank employes, filling station employes and all other places where workers meet the public. Details of the campaign will be in charge of the Retail Merchants committee.

Attending the meeting were R. M. Overstreet, Ray Hatfield, Philip McLaughlin, George Lockett, M. D. Weathers, Noel Tweet, Harold Seaburg, John J. McGrath, C. L. Hanley, William F. Brown, Harry Naugel, Abe Silverman, K. U. Love and John F. Zander, secretary-manager.

Forgiving — And Forgetting

The story is told of a little boy who was stung by a bee while playing in the garden of his home. He killed the bee, and then took it in the house and put it in a bottle. Thereafter he would tell everyone: "Whenever I look at this bee, I can just feel the sting it gave me."

For a while the little boy's friends were amused, but they soon got tired of seeing him come with his bottle. Just as tired as all of us get when somebody tells us over and over: "He did me an injustice. I forgive him—but I just can't forget how he hurt me."

One cannot but question the sincerity of a person who "forgives" injuries, but apparently is not willing to forget the wrong that has been done him or the hurt he has suffered.

The true Christian is not only ready to forgive the hurt caused by another, but is eager to banish all memories of the wrong. Perhaps he can never entirely forget what he has suffered, but at least he never indulges in self-commiseration or wishes to re-live his sad experiences.

This is far from true of those persons who forgive with the tongue, but in their hearts store up recollections which only too often serve as weapons of retaliation when the one who has offended them is guilty of injuring them again. Such an attitude is not only harmful to the injured person, but in the end convicts him as a greater sinner than the one who offended him.

In God's eyes, all men stand in need of forgiveness. "If thou, O Lord, shouldest mark iniquities, who shall stand it?" The forgiveness of God, however, is always perfect, provided contrition is sincere and the will to amendment is firm. Men may justly rebuke those who offend them, even as God rebukes the sinner, but they may never refuse a full pardon to the repentant.

Who dares ignore these words of the New Testament: "Then came Peter to Him, and said, Lord, how oft shall my brother sin against me, and I forgive him? Till seven times? Jesus saith unto him, I say not unto thee, Until seven times: But, Until seventy times seven" (Mat. 18: 21,22)

CHRISTIAN SCIENCE CHURCHES

"MORTALS AND IMMORTALS" is the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, May 16, 1948.

Golden Text: I Corinthians 15:49.

Among the citations which comprise the Lesson-Sermon is the following from the Bible: "Therefore if any man be in Christ, he is a new creature: old things are passed away; behold, all things are become new." (II Cor. 5:17). The Lesson-Sermon also includes the following passage from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures" by Mary Baker Eddy: "The sinless joy—the perfect harmony and immortality of Life, possessing unlimited divine beauty and goodness without a single bodily pleasure or pain—constitutes the only veritable, indestructible man, whose being is spiritual. This state of existence is scientific and intact—a perfection discernible only by those who have the final understanding of Christ in divine Science." (p. 76).

World's Hope Lies in Its Patriots' Faith

By William E. Gilroy, D. D.

One of the reasons why reforms do not stick and why periods of great moral awakening and religious revival are so often followed by periods of relapse is that reforming zeal is not shared by all and does not seriously affect every phase of life.

Under the influence of the reform wave, those who may not believe in the method or purposes of the reform become subdued and silent. But their attitudes or convictions are not changed. Their opposition is latent, awaiting an opportunity to find expression, and perhaps to effect a counter reform, or revolt.

The influence of Judaism upon the moral, social and religious life of the world has been incalculably great, in itself and as the moral and spiritual background of Christianity. But it is interesting to speculate upon how much even greater that influence would have been had the entire history of Israel always been upon the high plane of Israel's greatest saints, teachers and prophets instead of that history being one of moral rise and relapse.

The story is that of many of the people turning to idolatry and the anti-social ways and practices, denounced by the prophet Amos and in that terrible indictment of "woes" pronounced by Jesus, as recorded in Matthew 23.

In the same way, one may speculate upon what might be the influence and power of such democratic countries as the United States, Canada, and Great Britain in the crises that confront the world today, if every individual felt, lived and acted in full accordance with the professed spirit and the actual declarations of democracy, as these are expressed and acted upon by the finest and best citizens.

It would be a pretense to say that these democracies are strong and fully maintained in this sense. On the contrary, we know that they are weak, in spite of all the strength that they do posses. Because in many ways they fail to achieve the completeness of their own ideals in establishing for all, without distinction, the right to life, liberty and the pursuit of happiness.

What might our strength be if we attained a democratic life, above and free from all racial and religious prejudice, in which the vestiges of caste and special privilege that still remain were swept away?

To ask this question is not to disparage the progress the democracies have made or to express any spirit of pessimism. Only the goals and the God-given call to greatness, for us as for ancient Israel, are so much more than we have attained or achieved.

It is because so many in that ancient day were Israelites without guile, fired with a pure passion for Zion, that their influence was so great. And the hope of a needy world is still in its patriots of faith and vision.

St. Louis to Hire Efficiency Expert

ST. LOUIS, May 14.—(AP)—The city is going to pay $15,000 to find out how it can save more money.

The board of estimate voted yesterday to hire an efficiency expert, the Governmental Research Institute, to examine the way city business is conducted. Mayor A. P. Kaufman said information from the survey will save the city a lot more money than $15,000.

Charles Albanese, president of the board of aldermen, said the survey will be a fine thing if it recommends that the city take full control of the police department, which is now run by the state but paid for by the city.

Window Broken at St. Louis Clothing Co.

A large show window on the north side of the St. Louis Clothing store building, Second street and Ohio avenue, was broken some time shortly before midnight, Thursday. The broken window was near the entrance to the Sporting Goods department of the store at the rear end of the building.

Police making a check of the downtown business houses found the window broken out about 12:10 o'clock. Employees of the store were notified and with the police made a search of the building to ascertain if anyone could have gained entrance.

Nothing appeared to have been disturbed.

Overtime Parkers

Thirteen overtime parkers failed to appear in police court this morning before Judge Harry O. Berry and their one-dollar cash bonds were ordered forfeited.

Sacred Concert at St. Paul's Lutheran Church Sun. Night

The St. Paul's College Chorus of Concordia, Mo., under the direction of Prof. Norman Gienapp, will present a sacred concert at St. Paul's Lutheran church, Broadway and Massachusetts, on Sunday evening at 8:00 p. m. The Rev. Herman Heidbreder is pastor of St. Paul's church. The public is invited to attend this concert, at which an offering will be lifted to defray expenses. The appearance of St. Paul's College in Sedalia will mark the end of a concert season which has taken the singing group to Kansas City, Jefferson City, Norborne, Brunswick and other Missouri cities.

The program will consist of selections from various schools of sacred choral composition. The program will open with a group of three Latin numbers from the Italian Polyphonic school: "Adoramus Te" and "O Bone Jesu" by Palestrina, and "Vere Languores" by Lotti. These will be followed by a contrasting modern composition, "The Creation," by Richter, in which the first verses of Genesis, Chapter One, are set to realistic and arresting modern harmonies.

To Sing Favorites

In its second group the 36-voice male chorus will sing several concert favorites, including "Bless the Lord," arranged from the liturgy of the Greek Orthodox Church, "The Christmas Song" by Cornelius, "God So Loved the World" from "The Crucifixion" by Stainer, and Easter favorite, "In Joseph's Lovely Garden." The final group of numbers will feature four characteristic Slovak Christmas carols and will conclude with the traditional melody, "Beautiful Savior."

Interested in Youth Movement

A group of men interested in a coordinated youth program for Sedalia met Thursday night in the Chamber of Commerce office where a round table discussion on the subject was held.

The discussion was led by A. W. Hollister, of Topeka, Kas., who came to Sedalia at the invitation of John F. ander, secretary manager of the Chamber of Commerce.

Mr. Hollister suggested that the first step would be a survey of Sedalia to learn the needs of the city in facilities, organization, leadership, finances and various other things that go into the work of making a well-rounded youth program. When the survey has been completed it will give a basis for something to work on.

Those attending the meeting were: Harry Naugel, Jim Reed, Ernest Cummins, Abe Silverman, Harry Lambirth, Robert Cherry, Joe Rosenthal, Rev. H. S. Anglin and John Zander.

To Attend Conference

Paul S. Ginn and Charles Behrens, pressman and foreman of the composing room, respectively, of the Sedalia Democrat, will leave tonight for Waterloo, Iowa, to attend the Iowa Daily Newspaper mechanical conference, which will be held from Saturday through Monday. It will be at the Russell Lamson hotel in Waterloo.

The Innocent Impostor

THE STORY: Paul, angry at first when he recognizes Patience sitting with Roger Dickson in the stage box, decides he must talk to her. He crashes the backstage party. Seeing a sophisticated looking Patience, he approaches her. She does not seem to know him.

• • •

XX

PAUL stared at her. This was too much. He thought how changed she was. She might not be his Patience at all. For one wild moment he wondered if indeed she wasn't. But that, of course, was completely crazy. She was Patience all right. But in some bewildering way she was a completely different Patience. A Patience who was lovely and sophisticated, but not at all the way he liked her. Even her voice tonight seemed somehow different.

"Ah, there you are, my sweet."

Roger Dickson was bearing down on them.

Her face lit up. There was no mistaking the way she felt about him.

Paul turned away in disgust and pushed past the ever-increasing crowd towards the exit. As he went her voice floated after him.

"Darling, I'm glad you happened along just then. That young man you saw me with was really behaving in the oddest manner."

Patience, lost for a brief few moments in the press of people, joined them just in time to hear what Charlotte was saying.

"Which young man, Charlotte?"

"I don't know. It's not important." Charlotte slid her arm through Roger's: "Darling, I want food and drink. I've had absolutely nothing all day."

Charlotte moved towards the lavish buffet which had been set against the back wall of the stage, Roger with her. Patience on her other side said, not knowing quite why it was something she must know: "Charlotte, what was the young man like?"

Charlotte turned her head to look at her.

"Which young man?"

"The one you said was behaving so oddly."

"Oh, I don't know. Tall and dark and rather good-looking, I believe. He seemed to think he knew me, but I swear I've never seen him before in my life."

• • •

PATIENCE'S heart shook. And suddenly she saw that the same thought was occurring to Charlotte.

"Patience, he couldn't have taken me for you, could he?"

"That's what I'm wondering."

"But you've always told me you knew no young men."

Roger's eyes showed increasing interest.

"You told me so too."

Patience felt the blood flaming in her cheeks.

"There was one once. Not so very long ago. Oh, Charlotte, were you very beastly to him?"

Roger's voice had mockery in it.

"Nice girl with a past! Well, well, well, life's full of surprises."

Charlotte laughed shortly.

"I'd hardly expect it to be a very thrilling past!" and now her face lit up: "Why, Dwight darling, how nice to see you!"

She went forward with outstretched hands to meet a rather stockily built middle-aged man who was bearing down on her. He swept her away into the press of people.

"Were you in love with this young man?"

Patience looked up to find Roger speaking to her. She made a gesture of impatience. As if she'd tell him anyway! And suddenly all the excitement had gone from the evening. All the pleasure.

She made her way over to her sister who was now standing by the long table laden with food, not caring that she was still talking to the man she'd greeted with such enthusiasm.

She said breaking in on them, her voice tense with anxiety: "Charlotte, just what did happen? Between you and Paul, I mean?"

• • •

CHARLOTTE swung round, a look of swift irritation crossing her lovely face.

"Oh, it's you again! Patience darling, don't fuss. I can't remember now what I said. Listen, I want you to meet Mr. Breeden. Dwight, this is my twin sister. Roger Dickson you already know, don't you?"

Dwight Breeden. Patience racked her brains to remember what Charlotte had told her about him. And then in a flash it came back to her. This was the man, of course, who was so important to Charlotte. The big film magnate who'd given her her contract in pictures. The man she'd rushed off to meet that first day she, Patience, had lunched with Roger.

And now they seemed to be a little foursome. Dwight and Charlotte, Roger and herself.

Roger was being especially attentive to her—Patience. His hand now was at her elbow as he suggested they have something to eat since it all looked so appetizing.

"Hungry?"

"Not really."

"A pity. There are a lot of good things here. Maybe after you've had a drink you will be."

It was champagne and Patience had never before even so much as tasted it. She watched the golden liquid bubbling and sparkling in her glass, and, sipping it, decided that she rather liked it. She had one glass and then another.

And gradually the excitement of the entire evening came back to her. She forced herself to forget Paul. Everyone seemed happy. Patience told herself that she'd be a little ninny if she allowed herself to be wretched. Besides if she hadn't Paul she had Roger—

Obesity Lack Of Will Power

WICHITA, Kas., May 14—(AP)—This may start a heavy argument, but—Dr. Edward H. Rynearson of Rochester, Minn., told the Kansas Medical Society Thursday obesity—extra poundage—results solely from lack of will power.

When a person who wants to lose weight doesn't, he continued, it's because of "lack of character."

But let him tell it. He started it.

"The only treatment for obesity is diet. There is no medicine, no glandular extract which has any effect on fatty tissues.

"All fat comes from food. It doesn't come from air. It doesn't come from water.

"This business of blaming glands or grandfather is nothing but an alibi."

Obesity, the Mayo clinic medical consultant continued, is a menace to public health.

"It's hard to know of any disease that is not made worse by obesity.'

Invited Back To Active Duty

The Department of the Army announced recently that on the 15th of July, 1948, approximately 2,000 former officers between the ages of 21 and 27, except for medical and dental corps and corps of chaplains, will be invited to return to active duty to compete for Regular Army Commissions.

Although the tours are labeled "competitive," the competition involved is actually against a set standard rather than against other officers taking tours at the same time.

All tours of duty must be for one year. Non-regular officers now on active duty with the Army may apply for competitive tours provided they meet general standards. Reservists, National Guardsmen, ROTC Graduates, and others must volunteer for two years active duty in order to be eligible for acceptance for the one year competitive tour.

All interested persons should address their applications direct to The Adjutant General, Washington 25, D. C., Attention: AGSO-R.

The Daily Washington Merry-go-'Round

by Drew Pearson

WASHINGTON—Now that the 70-group air force has been definitely decided on, let's take a careful look at the next big military question—the draft.

1. When it comes to raising an army of foot-soldiers, the U.S.A. can never compete with Russia. Her population is too great. Furthermore, no land army has ever been able to penetrate Russia. Napoleon tried it and met his downfall. Hitler tried it and discovered it was his greatest mistake. Therefore, the U.S.A. has got to develop weapons (airplanes and atomic bombs) that can take the place of a big land army.

2. When it comes to a moderate-sized American land army, we need troops for two chief purposes: (a) forces to maintain bases abroad; (b) a police force to guard the U.S.A. in case of atomic attack at home.

Regarding the last of these categories, the United States has a tremendous reservoir of trained manpower—the veterans. While they should not be called upon for overseas duty, they would be the first to help maintain domestic order and prevent invasion in case American cities were devastated by atomic bombs. Local defense, therefore, should not require the drafting of men.

Citizens Army

Regarding the other phase—that part of the army which would operate abroad—it seems to me that defense planners have overlooked one of the most important of our war potentialities — the national guard and the reserves.

The other day, Senator Kilgore of West Virginia, Democrat, telephoned Maj. Gen. Kenneth F. Cramer, chief of the National Guard Bureau, to ask him to appear as a witness in favor of a strong national guard program.

"I can't come to talk to you," Gen. Cramer excused himself. "I'm not supposed to make my views known."

Yet, in every war so far, the national guard and the reserves have made notable records. In fact, it has been the resourcefulness and initiative of the individual American soldiers which have made the American army victorious in every war so far. No conscript army has ever been able to equal it.

Despite their record, the national guard and the reserves today are the stepchildren of the National Defense Department. They are woefully neglected. If, on the other hand, they were built up, they might be the answer to the draft.

For instance, 27 national guard divisions and 21 combat teams are in process of organization today—the equivalent of about 34 divisions. Actually, however, they are only 50 per cent organized and only six divisions will be equipped by 1950. Equipment will go to the new drafted army instead.

Substitution For Draft

As a basis for congressional discussion, therefore, this column suggests the following:

1. A compulsory 3-month military-training program for 18-19-year olds; then let them join the national guard.

2. Catalogue each man according to his abilities, so he can be called upon for army or factory in case of emergency.

3. Put national guard and reserve training under the army's best men, not hacks and has-beens.

4. Have uniform requirements for national guard and reserve officers. Make them take periodic examinations.

Such a program, plus the 70 air groups for offense, should give the United States an efficient, well-trained citizens' army without foisting upon the American people the militaristic system they just fought a war to avoid.

Behind The RR Injunction

Story behind the government's last-minute injunction against the threatened railroad strike is the fact that the three brotherhood leaders themselves actually urged this move in a very frank conference with presidential assistant John R. Steelman just after the president seized the railroads.

Two of the leaders, Robertson of the firemen and enginemen and Johnston of the engineers, even told Steelman they would not put up to their strike committees the question of going back to work.

"You know what we're up against," declared Johnston. "We have our own problems. We are under pressure from all sides. If we asked the men to remain on the job with a lot of these questions still in deadlock, some members might think we haven't done our best for them, which isn't the case, as you know."

Therefore, explained the leaders, only the issuance of a court order by the federal government would satisfy the more aggressive elements in the rail brotherhoods.

Arabs and Nazis

Here is another secret telegram captured by the Allied forces in Germany showing how the same Arab leaders now threatening Palestine connived with the Nazis during the war.

The telegram is dated July 28, 1942, a time when Marshal Rommel was pushing the British to the wall in North Africa. The telegram, sent from Ambassador Ritter to L. R. Von Neurath, Africa-Corps, shows how the Egyptian government conspired to give secret information to the Germans just at a time when it hurt most. It follows:

"Two Egyptian military planes, piloted by an Egyptian officer and an Egyptian under-officer, have been instructed by the highest Egyptian authorities, to fly to Field Marshal Rommel.

"On both airplanes there were important maps and plans which are of vital importance for the German military authorities. The pilots had received additional oral instructions.

"The foreign minister of the Reich requests you for news by return, as to what has transpired about the two Egyptian airplanes. "Sonnleithern."

NOTE — Although the British have been willing to make these documents public, the state department has been opposed—reportedly because of pressure from the National Defense Department. Secretary of National Defense James V. Forrestal, who heads the National Defense Department, was once a banker for the Arabian-American oil combine.

Truman Confers On Farm Problems

President Truman has been getting so much criticism on ignoring party leaders, that he called in a battery of Democratic bigwigs to discuss his farm-policy message.

The visiting policy-makers urged him to ask for permanent farm price supports, a revised parity formula, and an adequate soil-conservation program. Unless Congress acts, price supports on most farm products will die December 31. Also, the Republicans have been knifing appropriations for soil conservation.

Not a dissenting word was spoken against these proposals. However, Massachusetts' Congressman John McCormack, House minority whip, urged speedy action—before the Republicans come out with a farm program of their own.

Outgoing Secretary of Agriculture Clinton Anderson arrived late for the conference, mumbled an apology: "You know how it is these days."

"Have you accepted his resignation yet?" House Minority Leader Sam Rayburn asked the president.

"Yes," Truman nodded.

"Hello Ex," Rayburn then greeted the ex-secretary.

"I hate very much to see you go," remarked the president solemnly to Anderson.

NOTE—Also at the White House conference were Congressman John Flannagan of Virginia and Assistant Secretary of Agriculture Charlie Brannan, two leading candidates for Anderson's post. They sat side by side.

WAC Observes Sixth Birthday

WASHINGTON, May 14.—(AP)—The Women's army corps celebrates its sixth birthday today, but it wasn't sure it will be around to observe another one.

The WACS are waiting to find out what congress plans to do about their future—whether to make them a permanent part of the regular army, a reserve unit—or just let the law which created them expire July 1.

On May 14, 1942, the late President Roosevelt signed legislation introduced by Rep. Edith Nourse (R-Mass) creating the women's army auxiliary course. A year later the corps ceased to be an auxiliary and became a part of the army of the United States.

The chiefs of staff of the two armed forces had some kind birthday words for the WACS. Gen. Omar Bradley of the Army said the women had established a "proud record as soldiers." And Gen. Hoyt S. Vandenberg of the air force asserted "the corps is indispensible to the peacetime organization."

Asks More Aid

Giving a country-by-country breakdown on proposed American aid, Paul G. Hoffman, above, the Economic Cooperation Administrator, asks the senate appropriations committee to put "financial sinews" behind the $5,300,000,000 European Recovery Program. Tanna River Ice Breaks At 11:13 A. M.

FAIRBANKS, Alaska, May 14—(AP)—The ice broke in the Tanana river Thursday with $150,000 hanging on the minute hand.

Fifteen guesses, from the thousands entered in the annual prediction contest, hit the break-up time squarely on the minute—11:13 a. m.

The break-up came with spectacular suddeness.

The names of individuals on 11 winning guesses were: Jean Cox, Warren Ruehm, Tory Marsh, William Wilson, William Fonken, M. N. Curry, Charles Johnson, Verona Swartwood, Tony Frank, Mrs. Selma Fars and George Carty. Home addresses were not available immediately.

Four other winning entries were married by combinations of persons.

Tabernacle Organ Being Rebuilt

SALT LAKE CITY—(AP)—One of the world's most famous musical instruments, the Mormon tabernacle organ, is being rebuilt. The 81-year-old organ, which has been heard by thousands of visitors to Temple square and millions of radio listeners in the past quarter century, will have seven new sections of pipe installed before the next general conference of the Latter-Day Saints (Mormon) church in October. The total number of pipes will be 10,000, instead of the present 7,000.

Thorpe B. Isaacson, directing the remodeling, says that the exterior appearance of the massive organ will not be altered. Original pipes forming the imposing front of the organ will be retained. Some of the wooden interior pipes built in pioneer days also will be continued in use.

The organ was built on order of Brigham Young, pioneer president of the church, by Joseph H. Ridges, an English convert, who had lived for some years in Australia and according to legend built the first organ in that country.

First carpet factory in the United States was established at Philadelphia in 1791 by W. P. Sprague.

Youth Receives Letter From White House

Had Written Asking Opinion on American Way of Life

Charles S. Wright, young Negro boy, interested in good citizenship and the American Way of Life, wanting to get the opinion of the president, wrote to him, asking what it meant in his opinion, and received the following reply from President Truman's secretary, Charles G. Ross, written from the White House on White House stationery.

"April 15, 1948.

"Mr. Charles S. Wright
"104 East Cooper Street
"Sedalia, Missouri,

"Dear Mr. Wright:

"Your recent letter, addressed to the President, requesting a definition of the phrase "The American Way of Life," has been referred to me for acknowledgment.

"Your question is one, I think, that will have to be answered by each individual for himself, because the American way of life means different things to different people. I am sure that you must yourself have an idea of what it means to you, especially when you read the newspapers and magazines telling of life in other parts of the world these days. To most of us it means the freedom and liberty which those who live in America enjoy and which is guaranteed to us all under our Constitution or Bill of Rights. I am sure you have studied them in school and are familiar with them and the history and development of our country upon which they are founded.

"Your interest in writing is appreciated, and I am sorry that I cannot give you what might be a more complete and satisfactory reply to your question.

"Sincerely yours,
"Charles G. Ross,
"Secretary to the President."

The boy, writing on the subject for himself, states:

"So much has been said about this phrase, 'American Way of Life.' What does it mean? Does it mean the same democracy?

"Democracy means when we the people of this great nation shall have equal rights. I could easily define the American way of life—as a good and pleasant life, all having equal rights.

Now to the small guy or the minority groups, it doesn't mean the same. Mostly discrimination and not equal rights. But that doesn't give a very clear picture, so I wrote asking President Harry Truman what it meant."

Jack "Lefty" Kays pitched a five hit game as the East End Flyers defeated the Junior Blues 11 to 10 in their game played Thursday evening at Housel park. The Flyers collected eleven hits off of Billy Trent and C. A. Smith of the Blues.

The victory put the Flyers in first place in the league by one-half game and it was the fourth straight win for the team.

Roland McCoy led the Flyers attack getting three hits and a walk while Trent of the Blues had two hits. Kays won his own game with a double which produced the winning run.

A spectacular play was made by Lloyd Moore who made a somersault catch for the Flyers in the second inning.

Gromyko to Take Vacation

LAKE SUCCESS, May 14.—(AP)—Andrei A. Gromyko says he is going to leave his job as Russia's United Nations representative and go home for a vacation in July.

"I expect to be away for a few months," he told reporters last night. "I am in need of a vacation."

He said Jacob Malik, former Soviet ambassador to Japan, who like Gromyko is a Russian deputy foreign minister, would replace him during his absence.

Malik arrived in London last night en route to take up his new duties.

Informants said Gromyko would spend the remainder of his time here before going home in July showing Malik the ropes. It was reported here that Gromyko has two months of leave in store.

Bill Expected to Help Cripple Communist Party

By James Marlow

WASHINGTON, May 14—(AP)—This is an outline of the bill which the house is expected to pass in a bid to cripple, if not wreck the Communist party.

It can't become law unless the senate also approves—it may not—and the president signs it. He's against it.

The bill is too complicated to give more than just the highlights here.

This bill does not outlaw the Communist party. If it did and became law the supreme court might throw it out as unconstitional.

So the house un-American activities committee wrote this bill carefully to permit the Communist party to exist, but under rigid limits.

Neither the American Communist party nor Russia is mentioned by name in the bill. But both are meant.

Far Reaching

The language of the bill is such in spots that some of its critics think it may be more far-reaching than appears on the surface.

They say for example: That it invades civil liberties and may even apply to labor unions.

The whole bill is based on three ideas which the committee members say can be proved in court if it becomes law and is tested:

1. That there's a world conspiracy to set up Communist governments everywhere — if necessary, by force and violence.
2. Such governments are "totalitarian dictatorships" because they mean absolute rule by one party—the Communist party — for the party and the government are one and the same thing.
3. Communist organizations everywhere are part of this world conspiracy which isdirected and controlled by Russia.

How it Works

Supposing the bill became law, this is how it would work:

The attorney general investigates, holds hearings, and decides the American Communist party is part of a world conspiracy, under foreign control.

The party can appeal to the courts. If the courts uphold the attorney general, then —

The party leaders must register, giving their names and addresses and the correct names and addresses of all their members.

If they don't register, or give incorrect names, thye can be fined $5,000 and jailed for five years.

Party members themselves do not have to register or make their membership known. It's up to their leaders to do that for them.

If the party is ordered to register, but doesn't, then anyone who remains a member of the party violates the law.

Can Still Exist

But say the party registers and the attorney general has all the names and addresses of the officers and members. Then —

The Communist party can still exist and the officers and members can go on talking about Communism but —

They can be jailed for 10 years, fined $10,000 and lose their citizenship if—

1. They urge the overthrow of this government by force or violence. (Communists now deny they do that.)
2. Or urge setting up here a totalitarian dictatorship under the control of a foreign power.

The phrase — "under the control of a foreign power" — is stressed in the bill.

Hard to Imagine

So apparently it would be all right for the party to urge a dictatorship of the proletariat, or workers, arrived at by democratic means if the dictatorship would not be under foreign control.

But it's hard to imagine any American Communist, who sought wide support here, ever suggesting overthrowing this government so Russia could be boss here, with or without this bill.

But what of Communist-front organizations, groups set up to help the Communist party here or Communism abroad?

The same procedure by the attorney general, as in the case of the Communist party. In their case, though, only the leaders names would be registered, not the member's names.

But any Communist-front members—in fact, anyone at all — could be jailed for 10 years, fined $10,000 and lose his citizenship if —

He took part in a Communist conspiracy to set up here a totalitarian dictatorship under control of a foreign power.

PARIS, May 14—(AP)—Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip arrived in Paris today for a four-day visit. They were greeted at North station by French Foreign Minister Georges Bidault.

Outside the station some 4,000 people had waited for hours to catch a glimpse of the royal couple. It is the first time Elizabeth ever has visited a country outside the British commonwealth.

French police said security agents will maintain a close guard over the couple during their sojourn here. Rumors were published earlier this week of a Jewish underground plot to assassinate or kidnap the princess during her visit in France.

Rev. Whitehead To Washington

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 14.—(AP)—The Rev. Harold B. Whitehead, who numbers Mrs. Harry S. Truman and her daughter Margaret among his congregation at Trinity Episcopal church at Independence, Mo., will become rector of St. John's Episcopal church here on July 1.

Mr. Whitehead, who is 46, will succeed Canon Everett J. Downes, who is resigning to become rector of Zion church at Douglastown, Long Island.

Mr. Whitehead has been rector of Trinity church at Independence for the past nine years and formerly served parishes in Minneapolis and at Fort Lupton, Colo.

Because he has Mrs. Truman and Margaret in his congregation, Mr. Whitehead has been the subject of stories in several national news magazines. The Trumans are divided along religious lines—the President is a Baptist, while his wife and daughter are Episcopalians.

Mr. Whitehead also is a musician—and according to Canon Downes, Margaret Truman got her vocal start in the choir of Trinity church.

Fined $75 in Traffic Case

Ed Wollet, Sweet Springs, pleaded guilty to Judge Harry O. Berry in police court this morning and was fined $75 on a charge of driving a motor vehicle while intoxicated. Wollett was arrested following an accident at Third street and Massachusetts avenue, Thursday night.

Police reported Wollet was driving a 1946 Oldsmobile east on Third street and the car ran into the rear of a parked 1937 Ford coach. The Ford coach was knocked forward and crashed into a 1941 Dodge coupe parked just ahead. Damages to the three automobiles were estimated by the police at nearly $600.

The Ford coach, owned by Harold Meyer, Otterville, had both the front and rear ends of the car smashed, which the trunk on the rear of the Dodge car, owned by Roy Groff, 665 East Thirteenth street, was badly damaged. The front end of the Oldsmobile was only slightly damaged.

No one was injured in the accident.

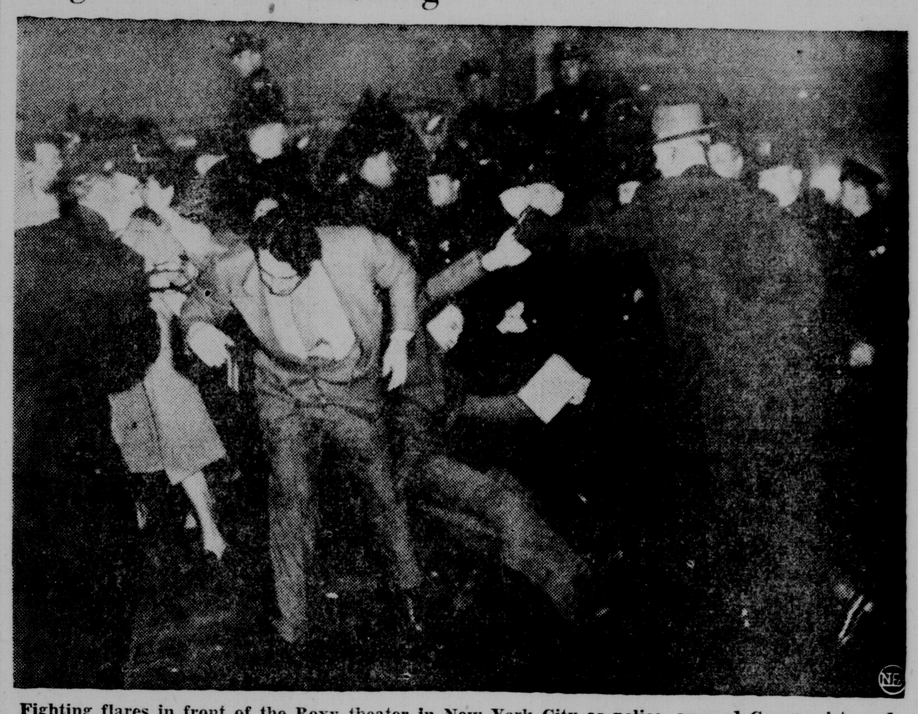
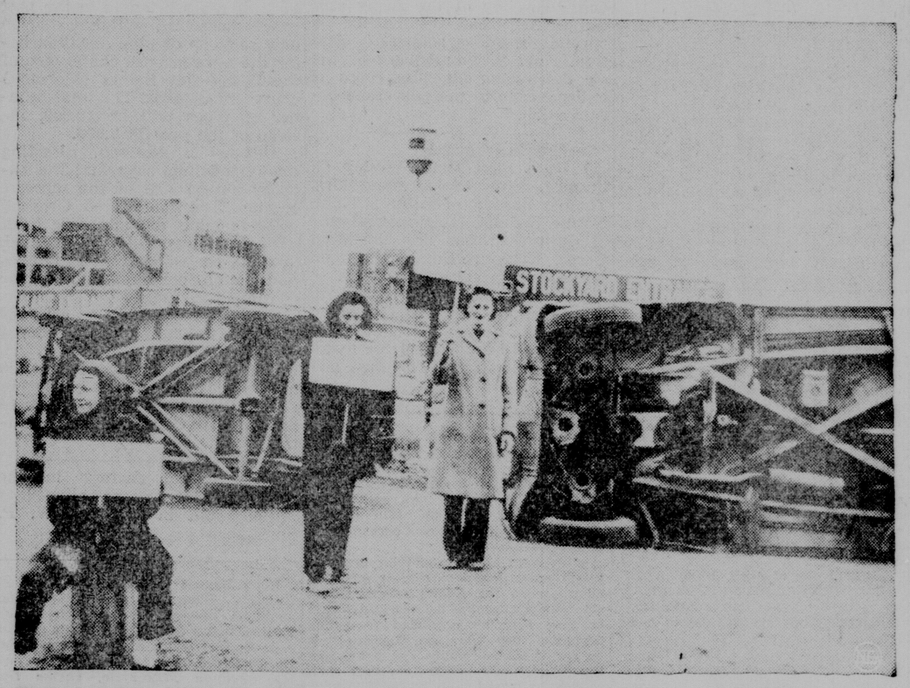
Tangle Over Film Showing



Fighting flares in front of the Roxy theater in New York City as police, avowed Communists and Catholic War Vets tangled when a jeering crowd of more than 4,000 persons congregated at the theater where the anti-Communist film, "The Iron Curtain," opened. The man in the center is staggered by a sharp left. (NEA TELEPHOTO by Andrew Lopez, NEA staff photographer.)

Strikers Overturn Autos



Women pickets guard the main entrance of the Wilson packing plant in Albert Lea, Minn., after strikers overturned three cars driven by employes trying to return to work. No one was seriously injured. The action occurred on the day set as a deadline by the company for its offer to reinstate 1,000 employes at a nine-cent-an-hour increase. The striking CIO is asking an increase of 29 cents. NEW YORK, May 13— Fred Sandman used to enjoy lunching with a big ape at the Waldorf-Astoria hotel.

"The meals were always on the house when we showed up," he said.

The ape, who expected and got the best of service, was Jennie, a chimpanzee. To Sandman, who also helped raise Gargantua, the circus gorilla, Jennie was perhaps the most intelligent creature he handled in 31 years with wild animals.

She could typewrite, eat at a table and use a napkin more daintily than the average night club gorilla of those days. She could also play the piano by ear — her ear.

"Whenever Fannie Brice saw us at a hotel, she'd have Jennie come over and sit in her lap," Sandman chuckled.

Brought Injured Crow

Today as supervisor of the Central Park Zoo Sandman is host to 450 caged animals and birds every day, to 50,000 human visitors every Sunday and to Novelist Fannie Hurst once a month.

"She brought me a crow that had been hit by an automobile," he said. "She's always bringing me animals she picked up. Once she brought in two orchid-colored chicks somebody had turned loose in the park after Easter."

Each month Miss Hurst comes by to see how her crow — named "Nevermore" after Poe's raven — is faring. He can walk but hasn't grown back enough tail feathers to fly.

"People bring in all kinds of animals to the zoo," Sandman said. "They get to be a problem. At least 20 rabbits they bring me each summer.

Pride in Two Animals

"Sonny wants to keep them at home but his mama doesn't. I turn them loose in our bird sanctuary here. Then one night some boys climb over the fence and the next morning the rabbits are all gone."

Sandman takes particular pride in two animals — Leo, a sway-backed lion and "Charles F.," one of the world's few tiglons. Leo had rickets as a cub and his legs never developed well. Now he walks like Charlie Chaplin and his body looks like a tawny dachshund.

The tiglon's father was a tiger and his mother a lioness.

"He has a nervous habit of chewing off his tail," said the supervisor. "Done it twice now. Probably frustration. He just can't figure out how he ever happened."

Many well known figures visit the Central Park Zoo. Dan Topping and Arline Judge used to come regularly. This was before Arline switched to Dan's brother Bob Topping, who recently switched to Lana Turner.

Three Gorillas

"Lupe Velez liked to come here," said Sandman. "I'd have the chimps put on a special act for her because she was fond of them."

The zoo has three gorillas and four chimpanzees, but they have not taken the place in his heart held by Jennie, now dead.

Jennie had a short gay fling with a millionaire before her death.

"He paid me $3,500 for her," Sandman smiled. "He'd send his chauffeur and car over for us. We'd go to his home and Jennie would go through her tricks for him.

"He got a big laugh out of watching her. Afterward they'd play tag, running around the room like a couple of kids. Finally, I guess he got tired. He gave me Jennie back s a gift."

I suppose the moral — if any —is that it doesn't pay to monkey with a millionaire.

Election Approved

The county court, this morning, approved the special election of Green Ridge Special Road District, in which 11 votes were cast for a 15 cent levy in excess on the $100 valuation, and none opposed it.

Traffic Checkers On Several Streets

Several traffic "checkers" have been installed on several main traveled streets of Sedalia the past few days. The "checkers" were installed by the State Highway Department and are used to determine the number of automobiles which pass a certain point over a period of several days.

The method is being used not only in Sedalia but in various other cities in Missouri.

The "checkers" have a long hose attaches which stretches across the street and as each car passes over it, it will record on a checking machine.

Poat's Two Hitter Puts Giants on Top

Two Errors by Schoendienst Give Giants Two Runs

By Jack Hand
Associated Press Sports Writer

Ray Poat's spring success takes the heat off New York Giant officials who booted Bill Voiselle to Boston for a sore-armed pitcher, now retired.

The two-hit shutout that Poat threw against the St. Louis Cardinals yesterday boosted the Giants into the National league lead. Despite Voiselle's four straight victories, the Braves are still in the second division.

Ott probably has no regrets about the trade that sent Voiselle to the Boston Braves last summer for Mort Cooper, even if Mort never did regain his old form Cooper finally quit and retired to run his business in St. Louis.

Poat's Record 3-1

Poat, purchased from Baltimore last summer after failing to make the grade with Cleveland, now has won three of four.

A single by Enos Slaughter in the second inning and a double by Red Schoendienst in the third were the only St. Louis hits off Poat in his 5-0 win. For five innings it was a scoreless duel between Poat and Red Munger but the Giants got two in the sixth and knocked out Munger in the eighth.

Two consecutive errors by Schoendienst contributed to the Giants' two sixth-inning runs. The first fumble of Johnny Mize's grounder filled the bases and nixed a chance for a double play. The second let a runner score and the bases still were jammed. Another runner crossed the plate on a long fly ball.

Wilks Retires Side

Munger was replaced in the eighth after he walked Poat with the bases full, forcing Mize home. Ted Wilks retired the side.

New York scored two more runs in the ninth, one each off Ken Johnson and Gerald Staley.

Voiselle blanked Chicago with four hits, 2-0, to leave Boston at the .500 mark. Bob Elliott drove in both runs with a single and an infield out. It was a fourth loss for hard luck Johnny Schmitz who also gave up only four hits.

Reds Lose Seventh Straight

Brooklyn broke even in the west by sinking Cincinnati, 9-3, for the Reds' seventh straight loss. Preacher Roe went the route for his first win at the expense of Ken Raffensberger.

Pittsburgh squeezed ahead of St. Louis into second place in the National by a night game win over the Phillies, 5-1. Rookie Bob Chesnes, making his first start in the majors, received credit for the decision although he required relief help in the seventh. Chesnes helped his own cause with a triple and Frank Gustine contributed a two-run homer.

Connie Mack Says A's May Win Pennant

'If We Can Split Even With Yanks,' He Tells Writers

By Ralph Bernstein

PHILADELPHIA, May 14—(AP)—"The Athletics will finish in the first division and are capable of winning the American League Pennant," Connie Mack said today.

Sitting in his Shibe Park tower office the genial baseball veteran prepared his strategy for the important four game series with the New York Yankees opening in Yankee stadium tomorrow.

"If we can split even in New York with the tough Yankees there's no telling how far we'll go," said Mack.

The 85-year old Philadelphia leader said "hustle and the ability to take advantage of every opportunity regardless of how small," is the reason for his club's present 10 game winning streak and lofty first place perch.

"Some player always seems to come through just when we need it. For example, take Sam Chapman night before last against St. Louis. Two out, none on in the ninth and Sam hits a homer. It ties the game and then we go on and win in the eleventh. It's unpredictable baseball that wins pennants."

And then Connie chuckled as he said:

"Why, even the opposing pitchers have been helping us along. We've had about six or seven runs forced in by a base on balls with the bases loaded. For that we say thank you."

"I've got great confidence in this infield of mine," Mack said, adding:

"It's the best infield I've ever had—yes, including the $100,000 group of Stuffy McInnis, Eddie Collins, Jack Barry and Frank Baker, and my 1931 boys—Jimmy Foxx, Max Bishop, Joe Boley and Jimmy Dykes."

His 1948 infield is the best fielding inner cordon in the American League. It has made only seven errors, and turned in 22 double plays and a triple play. The Pete Suder-Eddie Joost keystone combination is credited with 10 twin killings. Suder and Hank Majeski, third baseman, led the American League in fielding their respective positions last year, while first baseman Ferris Fain is not falling victim to the sophomore jinx.

"I wish we were a little faster on the bases," he said, adding, "Well, I guess I can't have everything."

• Sports Roundup

By Hugh Fullerton, Jr.

NEW YORK, May 14—(AP)—An experienced baseball observer who has seen games in five minor leagues so far this spring reports that he has yet to see anything that remotely resembles a promising young pitcher. . . . "The majors had better start something that will develop a few or there will be an acute shortage in a few years." . . . Possibly this gent hasn't seen the right clubs, but you'll notice that most of the flingers who were considered promising — and not always so young — when they came to the majors this spring already are back in the minors. . . . As a real prospect, how about collegian Willard Nixon of Auburn? . . . He tossed a no-hitter and a one-hitter against Tennessee this spring; gave Georgia one hit last Friday — an infield dribbler by the first man up—and came back as relief man against the same team the next afternoon. . . . His coach, Danny Doyle, is the former Red Sox catcher, so the other clubs probably haven't a look-in.

Cleaning the Cuff

A thoroughbred racing association's handout shows that when Lucretia Borgia set the American four-mile record in 1897 it was in a race against time — "A not uncommon practice in those days when a horse ran out of competition." . . . Maybe that's what they'll do with Citation. . . . The Mason-Dixon conference seems to have become a "name" league. . . . Bob Grove, Jr. (a right hander, too) is pitching for Washington college; Wilson Fewster (Chick's boy) is playing Lacrosse for Johns Hopkins and Eddie Rommell, Jr., was a candidate for the Loyola (Baltimore) baseball team.

She Doesn't Like To Catch Wrestlers

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 14—(AP)—Mrs. Hazel Frakes doesn't like to play catch at a wrestling match.

Not when she has to catch the wrestler.

And to make her point good she has gone into district court here and sued. She wants $10,000 damages for ringside fielding last February 13—which was a Friday.

Briefly put, the legal language says Leroy McGuirk tossed Danny McShain out of the ring and into her lap. McShain is no pixie. He weighs 190 pounds. She says his impact knocked her into the second row and, eventually, into a hospital.

And Mrs. Frakes is suspicious, too. She doesn't for a moment believe it was all an accident.

McGuirk, the suit says, did it "willfully . . . as part of the regular scheduled and rehearsed show."

Saints Increase Lead to 2 Games

By the Associated Press

The St. Paul Saints continued the hottest club in the American Association Thursday night by wrapping up their 7th straight win to increase their lead to two full games.

Minneapolis skipped into second place to keep the Twin Cities rivalry ablaze by taking an 11th inning verdict over Kansas City, 6-5. It was the Millers' sixth straight success.

The Saints' 8-7 decision over Milwaukee in 10 innings, was their eighth one-run victory of the season.

At Minneapolis, Jack Maguire slammed a homer with two down in the 11th frame to break a 5-all deadlock. Previously, pinch hitter Bill Drescher homered in the ninth with two aboard and two outs to knot the score for Kansas City.

Don Richmond's 10th inning single gave Toledo a 5-4 victory over Indianapolis.

Columbus piled up four runs in the eighth to down Louisville 8-3.

Tonight's games:
Kansas City at Minneapolis.
Milwaukee at St. Paul.
Columbus at Louisville.
Toledo at Indianapolis.

Chiefs Defeat Boonville 5-3

The Sedalia Chiefs edged the Boonville Lions, 5 to 3, Thursday night. The game was played under the lights on the Boonville diamond.

Rapp pitched the first half of the game, holding the Boonville aggregation to seven scattered hits and one run in his five innings.

Eschbacher, who followed him on the mound, allowed two runs on three hits during the last four innings of the game. White caught for Rapp and Schumaker came in to do the receiving for Eschbacher.

Robinson, Warrensburg college student who is playing first base for the Chiefs, led the hitting for the local club with three safeties in four trips. Means hit a line drive homer to the centerfield fence in the first inning and Joe Waters doubled driving in Robinson and Schweitzer for a three run lead.

Billy Hawley, who played a fine game at third, came through with a single through the mound in the eighth inning, driving in Means and Thompson for the winning margin.

Sedalia will play at Moberly Sunday in the first round of the Ban Johnson league schedule. The players will leave from Rodger's Pontiac company at 10 a. m. The probable battery for Sunday's game will be Egbert and Rapp pitchers and Schumaker and Barbour catchers.

Finals in tennis and preliminaries in track and field events will be held tomorrow morning, with the championship finals in the cinder meet slated for tomorrow night. It will make the first time the MCAU track finals have ever been held under the lights.

The Missouri Valley Vikings, host to the meet, are favored to capture their third straight track crown, but each of the seven member schools will have outstanding threats.

Ban Johnson Gets Underway Sunday

BOONVILLE, Mo., May 13—(AP)—Eight teams of the central Missouri Ban Johnson League will go into action Sunday to open the circuit's third post-war season.

Opening day games will take Brookfield to Boonville, Columbia to Jefferson City, Marshall to Mexico and Sedalia to Moberly.

Brookfield and Sedalia are the new members of the loop. Both are rated as strong contenders by Vic Meinert, president of the league. He explained that both cities had very active Junior American League teams last season. Slater, last season's pennant winner, has dropped out of the circuit.

Meinert also announced that a cup will be presented to the team having the largest attendance at it home opener.

The first half of the season will end July 1, and the second half will begin July 4.

Unpopular Official To Retire

WEATHERFORD, Tex., May 14—(AP)—Big Jack Sisco, whose runins with the fans over his officiating last fall brought about as much notoriety as the southwestern football campaign, is calling it a day.

Sisco was the target of a bottle barrage during the Texas-Oklahoma game and landed a punch to the jaw of a heckler after the Arkansas and Southern Methodist game. Then he stumped the state and told banqueters about the evils that have beset collegiate sports.

Today he declared he would not officiate either college or high school games next season and probably never would officiate again.

"It was a tough decision to make and took a long time," said the man who was hung in effigy on the campus of the University of Oklahoma after his decisions in the Texas-Oklahoma game had brought a near riot (he was escorted from the field in a police car when fans threatened).

"I am quitting for business reasons. I will just be a spectator patting the boys on the back next fall."

Sisco is in the automobile business here.

Sisco has been officiating for 25 years, 15 years in the Southwest conference. He was a coach at Baylor university and at North Texas State college for 14 years. He left North Texas State in 1942 when he entered the navy and did not return when he was discharged.

Light for the Lamps of Baltimore

BALTIMORE—(AP) — Baltimore is beginning to replace its old-fashioned gas street lamps with modern electric fixtures. And Baltimoreans don't know whether to be sad or glad.

Everyone agrees that the old gas lamps and the lamplighters with their little ladders give the city much of its old-world charm. But they give very little in the way of light.

Baltimore has 16,700 of these old-fashioned street lamps. There will be 800 less by the end of this year if present plans work out. Under the city's modernization program, 4,700 gas lights are to be replaced during the next four years.

However, in many residential sections, the city plans to keep the gas-type pole and lamp, simply adding an electric fixture.

A coroner's jury recommended that officers continue an investigation. Origin of the fire was not determined.

Hid Blades In Jail Before His Arrest

COLORADO SPRINGS, Colo., May 14—(AP)—Here's a fresh slant on jail breaks: Hide the hacksaw blades in the jail before you're arrested.

But it doesn't work.

Police said Thursday a 15-yr-old youth had done just that because he expected to be arrested in connection with a bowling alley burglary. He hid the blades on a window ledge of the jail, and as he had figured, was arrested soon afterward for investigation.

Officers found the blades before they could be of any use to the youth. They did not report his name.

Children Will Get Their Milk

KANSAS CITY, Kas., May 14—(AP)—Quite a few of Grocer Harvey C. Kenley's customers are idle because of strikes, but their children will not want for milk.

Kenley is giving it away.

Lettered in chalk paint on his window is this sign:

"Are you out of work? Does your baby need milk? See Harve inside.'

"I operate a cash business," he explained, "and many of my regular customers have been asking for credit recently because they are out of work. If I extend them credit they may stay away from my store because they owe me money.

"If I give them milk for their children, they'll fell kindly toward me and I'll still have their business when they return to their jobs."

He said the sign had been on the window several days but there had been few applicants for the milk.

No Aid To The Russians

Hoffman Plans to Send Only Such Relief as United States Can Spare

WASHINGTON, May 13 —(AP)— The United States will shut off economic aid to any European nation which supplies war machinery to Russia, ERP Director Paul Hoffman said today.

Hoffman said:

"We will tell them they must stop it or we won't furnish aid."

The economic cooperation administrator was before the senate appropriations committee to ask further funds for the European recovery program.

Senator Cordon (R-Ore.) asked Hoffman what he intended to do to "control the translation of our goods and money" into war machinery to Russia?

"If it is true," said Hoffman, "that we are furnishing aid and if a country is shipping such commodities (to Russia) they have got to stop it or we won't furnish aid."

Just What Can Be Spared

Hoffman gave the senators assurance, too, that ECA will ship abroad only those goods "which can wisely and safely be spared."

"Continued United States prosperity is paramount to the achievment of European recovery," he said.

Hoffman appeared before the senate appropriations committee to plead for the full $4,245,000,000 balance needed to round out the $5,300,000,000 congress has authorized for the recovery program.

The remainder of the sum has been provided for through advances from the Reconstruction Finance Corporation and congress.

The ECA chief promised the committee that requests for aid by European nations will be carefully screened and the use of American dollars overseas will be thoroughly checked.

To Recovery Effort

He also said th program soon will shift from an emergency relief basis to "full pledged recovery efforts."

Hoffman explained that relief shipments of food were necessary at the outset but starting July 1, he said, there will be a "considerable shift" to machinery, materials and similar goods designed to spur recovery.

Starting October 1, he reported, "we are hoping the emphasis will be on the recovery items."

He also gave the senators this tentative estimate of ECA shipments in its first year:

Food and farm products, $2,273,900,000; fuel $625,000,000; raw materials $810,100,000; machinery and equipment $776,800,000; miscellaneous $264,600,000.

Other Outlays

Ocean shipping costs and price adjustments will and $311,600,000, Hoffman said, and other outlays will add $82,000,000 to bring the costs to the $5,300,000,000 authorized.

From this may be deducted $55,000,000 in funds already appropriated and $1,000,000,000 obtained through the RFC. This brings the total down to the $4,245,000,000 for which Hoffman asked.

Hoffman conceded that the full $5,300,000,000 authorized is "a lot of money," but said it is lower than independent estimates for the size of the job ahead. He continued:

"The degree of recovery we seek can be accomplished with the amount of money requested only with the most careful planning, the most rigorous supervision of expenditures, and the most favorable crop and other developments in Europe.

"I therefore strongly recommend the appropriation of the full amount requested of the congress."

Hospital Day Open House at The Bothwell

The John H. Bothwell Memorial hospital was visited Wednesday, National Hospital Day, by about 250 people, who were shown through the building by nurses, nurse aides and Gray Ladies of the Red Cross.

National Hospital Day is observed in honor of the nursing profession, which was founded by Florence Nightingale, whose untiring effort in furthering her profession is an inspiration to all nurses. May 12, the day on which Miss Nightingale was born in 1820, is set aside each year as a tribute to her and the women who have followed her profession.

Members of the auxiliary to the Pettis County Medical Society served punch and cookies during the afternoon and evening. A lace table cloth covered the counter in the front of the building which was used as a table. A large crystal punch bowl was in the center with three branch candelabra holding lighted white tapers on either side. Large plates of fancy cookies were placed along the counter.

Many Flowers

The main corridors was filled with baskets of flowers, gifts of various firms and organizations and many individuals.

Visitors were taken through the building where they were shown the different types of equipment, given a general idea of the functioning of the hospital and shown the improvements and redecorating that is now being done in the building.

The kitchen has been remodeled and redecorated with some improvements made. There is a new food conveyor to take the food to the different floors. One large room has been redecorated and another one is being re-plastered and will also be redecorated. They are both o the first floor on the east side and will now be used as women's wards. The office has also been redecorated in a light blue shade and new lights have been installed. Numerous other improvements are planned.

Into Period of Stabilization

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)— Emil Schram, president of the New York Stock Exchange, said today that "provided we keep our heads" there is no danger of runaway inflation or a great depression.

"We have emerged from the period of shortages and unless the congress permits the budget to become unbalanced again, I firmly believe we have already entered the postwar period of stabilization," Schram said in a statement to the senate-house economic committee.

The committee is studying anti-inflation proposals, particularly suggests to restrict bank credit.

"We cannot hope to attain absolute stability—it is not part of a dynamic economy," Schram said. "However, if we do not depress business phychology unnecessarily and adopt voluntary restraints such as the American Bankers Association has advocated, I see no reason why a large volume of goods and services cannot continue to be produced and taken off the market."

Hope To Save Jerusalem From Harm

Agreement Upon Neutral Mayor Of Holy City

By James M. Long

TEL AVIV, Palestine, May 13—(AP)—All trained Jewish men and women of fighting age were called to arms today as a new Zionist state neared its zero hour.

The state will begin its life with Jaffa, the main Arab port in Palestine surrendered officially to Haganah, the Jewish army.

By Francis W. Carpenter

LAKE SUCCESS, May 13—(AP) —Urgent efforts to save Jerusalem from harm were made tonight in the United Nations Assembly.

Less than 24 hours before the British give up their mandate rule over Palestine at 5 p. m. (EST) Friday these steps were taken in the U. N. here:

1. The U. N. announced an American Quaker, Harold Evans of Philadelphia, had been agreed upon by Jews and Arabs for appointment as neutral mayor of the Holy City.

2. An Assembly sub-group approved a temporary U. N. regime to protect the Holy City, particularly its most sacred places.

3. Another sub-group voted to suspend operation of the U. N. Palestine partition commission by June 1. It approved appointment of a U. N. mediator who would promote peaceful adjustment of the situation in Palestine if possible.

Agreed To A Truce

4. The Arab higher committee agreed to a truce for all of Jerusalem which guaranteed free access for the Jews to wailing wall, one of their most revered Holy places.

The decisions of the two subcommittees were placed immediately before the 58-nation political committee of the second special Assembly on Palestine.

They ran into immediate opposition from the Soviet bloc, which has fought stubbornly to retain the U. N. project to partition Palestine.

The Soviet delegation and Poland particularly demanded time to study the day's actions and consult their governments.

Vote To Suspend Commission

The sub-committee considering the whole Palestine problem voted 6 to 1 to suspend the five-nation commission on June 1. Russia voted against the suspension.

The United States had demanded the commission be discharged immediately.

The sub-committee decision to put Jerusalem under a trusteeship type U. N. administration was adopted, 8 to 2.

Russia and Iraq voted against it.

The sub-committee plan calls for appointment by the U. N. Trusteeship Council of a U. N. Commissioner. The whole set-up would be under the Council.

Killed When Car Overturns

BERRYVILLE, Ark., May 13.—(AP)—Emit P. Horton, 22, Lamar, Mo., was killed last night when his automobile overturned four miles east of here on U. S. Highway 62.

A companion, J. F. Cramer, 18, Baltimore, Md., suffered severe lacerations on the legs. Cramer had hitchhiked a ride with Horton.

The two were en route to Lamar from Green Forest, Ark., where Horton had visited relatives.

Obesity Lack Of Will Power

WICHITA, Kas., May 14—(AP)— This may start a heavy argument, but—Dr. Edward H. Rynearson of Rochester, Minn., told the Kansas Medical Society Thursday obesity —extra poundage—results solely from lack of will power.

When a person who wants to lose weight doesn't, he continued, it's because of "lack of character."

But let him tell it. He started it.

"The only treatment for obesity is diet. There is no medicine, no glandular extract which has any effect on fatty tissues.

"All fat comes from food. It doesn't come from air. It doesn't come from water.

"This business of blaming glands or grandfather is nothing but an alibi."

Obesity, the Mayo clinic medical consultant continued, is a menace to public health.

"It's hard to know of any disease that is not made worse by obesity.'

Unscheduled Landing Of Large Plane

CHILLICOTHE, Mo., May 13—(AP)—A TWA Constellation plane flying non-stop from Los Angeles to Chicago made an unscheduled landing here today when, the crew reported, the fire warning signal flashed on.

Crewmen said the landing, about 3:30 p. m. (CST), was normal and that none of the 33 passengers aboard was injured.

They said there was no evidence of fire uon landing.

At Kansas City, TWA officials said they were flying two other planes to Chillicothe, 60 miles northeast, to take the passengers on to Chicago.

A Chillicothe fire truck made a run to the airport, but was not needed.

Law To Force Information

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)— Legislation to force government agencies to give confidential information to congressional committees was passed today by the House.

The bill now goes to the Senate, where it may die. The senators have indicated little enthusiasm for it. Furthermore President Truman told a news conference today he will veto the bill if it ever reaches the White House.

In addition to requiring congressionally-created agencies to turn over their files to Congress upon demand, the bill makes it unlawful for officials of those agencies to take with them, for their own use when they leave office, state or other official papers.

Before passage, the House voted to exempt news men from penalty sections.

Police Clash With Pickets At St. Paul

St. Joseph Livestock Handlers Strike For Thursday Is Averted

SOUTH ST. PAUL, Minn., May 13—(AP)—Police and sheriff's deputies battled with CIO Packinghouse Workers today in an unsuccessful attempt to open picket lines around plants strikebound since March 16.

Several of the 17 officers were struck and two were knocked down by pickets' fists when they attempted to go through lines blocking the entrance to the Swift & Co plant. Several hundred persons milled in front of the gate.

The pickets had been told earlier via loudspeakers that they must reduce their number to 10 persons between curb lines and four on each sidewalk. A court injunction issued yesterday set this limit and prohibited mass picketing.

Walk Toward Crowd

When the pickets did not comply, Sheriff Norman Dieter, Chief of Police Louis Fuller and some of their men began to walk toward the crowd. There were boos. Then pickets and police began to shove and fists flew. The officers retired. Chief Fuller said he would not try further to open the lines when he had so few men.

Later 200 men and women, identifying themselves as both union and non-union employes, called on Gov. Luther Youngdahl at the capitol in St. Paul. They said they wanted to return to work and asked what he intended to do about the violence.

The governor said he would not permit violence to continue and that he would throw "the full force of my office behind efforts to help out this situation."

May Call Out "Guards"

Later, the governor said that he would have "no alternative" but to "call out the National Guard to restore law and order" if "local officials" are incapable of enforcing the law after "a sincere effort."

In radio talks tonight the governor added that he believed "it is premature to say that law enforcement agencies have completely broken down and that there is no recourse but to declare martial law and use troops."

The strike started on a nationwide basis March 16. The union asked for a 29 cent an hour increase.

Children Will Get Their Milk

KANSAS CITY, Kas., May 14—(AP)—Quite a few of Grocer Harvey C. Kenley's customers are idle because of strikes, but their children will not want for milk.

Kenley is giving it away.

Lettered in chalk paint on his window is this sign:

"Are you out of work? Does your baby need milk? See Harve inside.'

"I operate a cash business," he explained, "and many of my regular customers have been asking for credit recently because they are out of work. If I extend them credit they may stay away from my store because they owe me money.

"If I give them milk for their children, they'll fell kindly toward me and I'll still have their business when they return to their jobs."

He said the sign had been on the window several days but there had been few applicants for the milk.

Shelve Bill On Educational Segregation

Bill On Southern Plan For Regional Universities

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)— A dramatic 38 to 37 Senate vote today shelved the bill to give congressional approval to a Southern plan for regional universities.

The vote was to send the measure back to the Senate judiciary committee for further study. It was on the motion of Senator Morse (R-Ore) who said he wanted to prevent segregation of Negroes in the proposed schools.

When the roll call was first tallied, the count was 37 to 36 against sending the bill back. But during the recount, Senators Capper (R-Kans) and Edwin C. Johnson (D-Colo) arrived in the chamber with two "aye" votes. They swung the decision.

Foes said the regional university plan would be used to meet recent supreme court decisions that Negroes must be given equal educational facilities. They said it would permit continued refusal to admit Negroes to white institutions and would be a device for continuing segregation.

Sponsors of the plan, however, denied that this was the purpose. They said it had been proposed as far back as 1935 and that it has been contemplated, for example, for graduates of white Florida colleges to use an Alabama veterinary school for postgraduate work. This would save Florida the expense of running such an institution itself. The pattern could be repeated elsewhere.

If the 15 states set up regional universities for Negroes—or for whites—they would need approval of congress, suporters of the plan said. Senator Morse argued such approval was not needed under the constitution.

Anyhow, Morse said, if the Senate didn't send the bill back to committee he would seek an amendment to forbid segregation in the schools. He said he also would try to add to the bill other civil rights proposals such as have stirred the wrath of southern lawmakers when they were made by President Truman.

Before the vote, Senator Russell (D-Ga) told reporters that to send the bill to committee "would be killing the plan for this session."

He said leaders in American education agree that the plan is the "most progressive development in the field of higher education for generations."

Captured as he Fell Into Ditch

SPRINGFIELD, Mo., May 13—(AP)—Caroll Marcell Marriott, 23, of Versailles, Mo., who escaped from a state prison farm near Jefferson City April 15, was captured early today when he stumbled into a ditch just as a state trooper fired at him.

Answering a prowler call at a home south of Springfield, troopers found a car abandoned with a flat tire. An hour later, they spotted the car approaching at the north city limits and gave chase.

Marriott abandoned the car when the hood blew up and blocked his vision. A patrolman pursued him on foot and when three warning shots failed to stop him, took careful aim.

Marriott tumbled into a ditch just as the trooper fired, and the officer believed he had killed the man.

Marriott, pale and visibly shaken, admitted he is the escaped convict and that he had stolen five cars in Missouri and Arkansas since he "just walked away" from the prison farm.

The car he was driving when troopers saw him was stolen last night at Branson, Mo. The state patrol said Marriott's companion in the escape, James Albert Lovett, 25, was recaptured April 20.

Truman Supports Marshall

Hope of Eventual Peace Not Increased By Exchange of Notes With Russia

WASHINGTON, May 13 — (AP) —President Truman said today that his hopes for eventual peace have not been increased by the recent exchange of notes with Russia.

The President told a news conference he is supporting to the limit Secretary of State Marshall's statement that what is needed is action, rather than general talks. Marshall said yesterday that if Russia desires to promote peace she can act through the United Nations and other Allied agencies.

The secretary of state ruled out any two-nation, Russo-American talks on matters of concern also to other nations.

President Truman said Marshall covered thoroughly the situation as left by the exchange of notes between Russia and the United States.

Would Meet Stalin

In response to questions, the President repeated what he has said often before—that he would be glad to meet with Soviet Premier Stalin in Washington.

Asked what the two would talk about at such a meeting, the President said he would let the newsmen know if such a meeting ever came about.

The whole reaction here to Russia's publication of the notes suggests that the chance for any real improvement in relations between Russia and the United States hinges on whether there will be a basic change in Soviet foreign policy.

That is indicated strongly by the statements of all top officials.

At Mr. Truman's conference, the questioning which led to his statement on peace prospects went in this manner.

No Basic Change

A reporter recalled that the President told a news conference some weeks ago that his confidence in eventual permanent peace had been somewhat shaken by developments abroad. He asked what the President thought were the prospects for permanent peace.

Mr. Truman said he though there had been no basic change in the prospects.

He remarked that he has said repeatedly that this nation will work through the United Nations and that ultimately there will be peace throughout the world.

In reply to other questions, Mr. Truman said the note Ambassador Walter Bedell Smith handed Foreign Minister Molotov had his approval and that of his cabinet.

Considered It All

Someone asked if he and the cabinet had considered the last paragraph of Smith's note.

(The Russians interpreted that part as an invitation to two-power talks.)

The President replied that the matter had been considered from the beginning to the yours truly.

Then he added that he did not see that the exchange of notes had increased materially the prospects for peace.

Ask More Aid For Defense

By Jack Rutledge

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)— President Truman today formally asked congress for $2,434,441,000 (B) more for America's defense program.

Congress has been expecting it since April 1, when the President said military requirements had been boosted since his March 17 message to congress urging a draft, universal military training and expanded armed forces.

He said the new program would cost about $3,000,000,000 (B) more than the original budget estimate for the armed forces. This first estimate, made in January, was around $11,000,000,000.

Today's request for $2,434,441,000, plus the $725,000,000 (M) asked for airplanes recently, plus a request for authority to enter into defense contracts totalling $40,000,000 bring to $3,199,441,000 (B) the additional money asked for defense since January.

It brings the total defense estimates to over 14 billions for the fiscal year beginning July 1.

Mr. Truman, in a letter to Speaker Martin, said military expenditures must be considered in connection with their effect on the national economy, and that a close watch would be kept on such spending.

He said Secretary of Defense Forrestal will review the entire defense program twice more this year—in September and December.

Mrs. J. T. Curry Critical From Gunshot Injury

Shifted Position, In Line With Shot To Kill Water Snake

Mrs. Dorothy Robins Curry, 23, wife of James T. Curry, 29, 411 North Grand avenue, is in a critical condition from a gunshot wound suffered about 2:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, while out fishing with her husband and her brother-in-law, Donald Curry, 21, 400 East Fourth street.

Mrs. Curry was accidentally wounded by her brother-in-law who was using a new .22 calibre automatic pistol to shoot a water moccasin snake. Mrs. Curry saw the snake while they were fishing. Her husband first took the gun, and she insisted her brother-in-law take it because he was more familiar with guns.

Mr. Curry stated his wife was standing behind them, up on the bank, and that while they were looking for the snake she shifted her position around. His brother pulled the safety and the gun accidently discharged. The gun was pointed upward, she had walked around and was in line with the shot, and was about three feet away when the accident occurred.

Struck Her Face

The bullet struck her beneath the left eye and ranged upward into the top of her head. She was brought to Sedalia to the Bothwell hospital where Dr. E. L. Rhodes treated her. X-ray pictures were also taken to determine the extent of injury to the head and to locate the bullet.

The accident occurred on the John Walls farm about fifteen miles north of Sedalia on Greer branch.

Blues Drop 5 to 0 Game To Red Birds

Bisges Pitches A 4-Hitter for Jefferson City

The Jefferson City Red Birds, behind the four-hit pitching of Hugh Bisges, shut out the Sedalia Blue 5 to 0 Friday night. The game was the first night game of the season under the new lights at the Jefferson City ball park.

Joe Imhauser, pitching for the Blues, worked a fine game with the exception of the fourth inning when the Red Birds pushed across four runs on five hits and two errors. That inning provided the winning margin for the Capital City boys, altho they put across another run in the seventh.

Imhauser fanned 10 men while limiting the Red Birds to 10 hits, but that just wasn't good enough. Bisges, who can be remembered from his action in the semi-pro tournament here last summer, was in complete control of the game. He sent 13 Blues down via the strike-out route.

The line-ups:

Jefferson City—S. Adair, 2b; E. Mueller, lf; A. Mueller, 1b; C. Maxey, cf; Prenger, 3b; Kramer, rf; Sweeney, c; Roberts, ss; and Bisges, p.

Sedalia—Richardson, ss; Slocum, 3b; Barnes, c; Carver, cf; C. Poynter, 1b; Hunter and Coffelt, rf; Anderson, 2b; Ditton, lf; and Imhauser. p.

The score by innings:

Blues	000 000 000	0	4 3
Red Birds	000 400 10x	5	10 0

The Blues will go to Boonville this afternoon for a league game with the team there, beginning at 2:45 o'clock.

Last Sunday the Blues dropped a loosely played game to the Smithton Horents, while the Boonville team was beating Jeff City.

The team will leave from Hausel Park at 12 o'clock noon.

Children Pay Tribute To Their Mothers, Young or Old

There was a far away look in the eyes of a young mother employed downtown recently when she said: "I feel that I am missing something."

After a brief silence she continued: "I have a little boy at home, below school age and I feel that I am missing something by not being home with him—I feel that he is missing something, too."

"I thought I would work a year," she said, "Until we get on our feet again, but I don't know. I don't know whether it is worth it or not—with what my child and I are both losing."

Money Isn't Everything

Circumstances sometimes make it so that a mother is deprived of those golden hours of rearing her children and certainly that is a real sacrifice to those who are real mothers. If she can manage at all without that pay check she brings in, no money is worth the joy of those years of her youngster's childhood that pass all to quickly.

To a child home means but one thing—Mother. Without her the house is empty no matter how many people are in it. That is as it should be. She is the one person placed upon the pedestal and adored by her whole household.

Her Day

This day is hers. It matters not if she is old or young a tribute is paid to her for those many little things and big things that go along with the job, the happy job of being a mother.

If she is gone, no matter how many years have passed, her children still tell of the things she did and said. A mother never really dies as long as one of her children lives.

Today is Mother's Day and over this great nation mothers are receiving gifts, cards, letters, calls and visits from their children. They may be expensive gifts or they may be a hand full of flowers picked by tiny hands in the backyard—but they all have the same value to mother—in the gift she sees but one thing—the love with which it is given.

Cold Weather Comes With Blackberry Blooms, Legend

Old timers will tell you that the cold spell we had last week was blackberry winter. Every spring about this time when the blackberries bloom we have a cold snap. What connection there is between the cold spell and the blackberries is still a mystery but the fact remains that we do have cold weather every year when the blackberries bloom—so these people who know say.

Whether the blackberries bloom because it turns cold or whether it turns cold because the blackberries bloom, we don't know—we wouldn't know a blackberry bloom if we saw it, but it seems that the two always get together.

A good many years ago an elderly woman by the name of Mrs. Farris used to say: "We're going to have a cold spell, the blackberries are about ready to bloom" and a son in a neighbors' family who didn't like the cold snap would say each year in disgust: "Old Mrs. Farris and her blackberry blooms," much to the amusement of members of his family. He and the members of his family have long been gone but the story has been handed down through the generations. The cold spell of weather in the spring never comes that members of that family don't remark: "Old Mrs. Farris and her blackberry blooms."

Five graduates of the university were also honored.

Man Made Good in Honolulu Returns To First Love, Sedalia

"It is merely sentiment that brings me back here" said Prof. Robert Milton Smith, who recently sold his chemical company in Honolulu and came back on a visit to his old home town, "Just to see Missouri in the spring again."

Mr. Smith, who was born in Cooper county so close to the line that he had only to cross the road to be in Pettis county, has had a colorful and varied career. The son of the Rev. Jervase Parks Smith, a Southern Methodist minister, and Mrs. Smith, he moved with his parents to Sedalia in 1892.

Mr. Smith started to school at old Summit and his seatmate in the first grade was Walter Dandy, who at the time of his death a few years ago was one of the greatest brain specialists in the world.

Meeting Old Friends

"There was Rudolph Ramlow, too," he said, who was in my gang. "I've seen Rudolph and had a talk with him"—Prof. Smith said, "And his kid sister, Lizzie, was the only "pigtail" on our ball team. She was a lot younger but she could play ball and she's a real ball fan now." She is now Mrs. Louise Strelow of this city. Prof. Smith recalled many of the old timers in east Sedalia as the family lived on Sixth street east of Engineer avenue.

The Smith family later moved to the country near the Missouri Pacific shop. "Out there near Will McVey's place. That was country then. No houses anywhere. I attended McVey school" he said. "Graduated from there fifty years ago. I want to get out there and see it." That is the little red brick school on east highway 50.

"I went one year to high school and that was where I knew Irwin Raut," he said.

Raut Remembered Him

The other day I was standing on the street when I heard someone say: "Well, hello Smith," I turned around and there was Irwin Raut. "How he knew me after all those years, I'll never know. He even knew me with this beard. "I only had a mustache when I left."

"I went to work at the Katy shops," Mr. Smith said, "Then in 1901 went to Texas but came back to Missouri in 1903 and went to work as a fireman out of Jefferson City."

Mr. Smith hadn't forgotten his railroad friends either. He made a call out to see W. G. Martin, retired Missouri Pacific engineer.

"I fired for Bill Finnell," he said, "And I went out to see his family." Mr. Finnell died a number of years ago.

Entered University

In 1904 Prof. Smith entered the University of Missouri at Columbia from which he was graduated with several degrees. He hopes to go to Columbia for the graduation this year. After working his way through college he taught school, was principal at Carutherville and was a professor of chemistry at Culver-Stockton college, Canton, Mo., and the Southeast Agricultural school at Monticello, Ark., he taught a second time at Culver Stockton and was with the experimental station at the University of Missouri. He taught at Mt. Morris college in Illinois and Central college in Indiana.

One day Prof. Smith received a telegram. "It was out of a clear blue sky," he said, and it offered him a job teaching chemistry in Honolulu.

Two Years Grew To 24

"Honolulu is a mighty long ways off," he said, but his wife thought it might be fun—just for a couple of years. That was 24 years ago and he has been there ever since.

In about 1928 Prof. Smith was making a talk before a group of people on chemistry. "Many things could be made here in Honolulu that are now being imported" he said in his talk. He merely stated a fact and thought nothing of it at the time.

After his talk several Honolulu business men came to him and asked him about the statement he had made about being able to make in their own country many things they were importing. "They wanted to be shown and so," said Prof. Smith, "it was up to me to show them. I had to prove I was right," he said.

He made samples of products and at once they wanted him to manufacture them. Wanted to give him orders, big orders.

"The next thing I knew I was in business—I was just pushed in." Mr. Smith said.

Did Pretty Well

"And you made plenty of money," said a reporter.

The professor smiled and stroked his graying beard as he replied: "I did pretty well."

On April 19 Prof. Smith completed his last transactions on selling out his business and the next day he took a plane to Burbank, Calif., on his way to Sedalia.

"I came back to see who was still living and who was dead" he said, "I have seen quite a few of my old friends. We are all granddaddies now. And we show each other pictures of our grandchildren and tell all about them." With that he pulled two pictures from his pocket, the first of his 20 year old daughter, Eloise, who sells radio time for KGMB. Eloise is an attractive blond girl. The other picture was of Robert Milton Smith, III, 5 year-old son of his oldest boy, Robert Milton Smith, II, who is with an oil company in California. His youngest child; Herbert, 18, graduates in June. Mrs. Smith, who doesn't care much to travel, didn't want to make the trip back to the states.

Same Business Houses

"Do you find things changed here?" the reporter asked.

"No," Mr. Smith said, "Sedalia has grown a great deal both east and west, but I can still find my way around. Many places look familiar. Old Ohio street looks natural, same old firms in business, McLaughlins, Bichsels, Hoffmans, Bards Drug store, and Dugans."

"And that old Missouri Pacific railroad station," he laughed, "It hasn't changed a bit since I first saw it, It looks just the same."

"But, why," he asked, "Did you Sedalia people ever let them put filling stations on Broadway and Ohio? Broadway was always the most beautiful residental street in the state of Missouri. That old Jaynes mansion there on the corner—that at least should have been kept for a park. I can see why any company would want that corner for a filling station but it meant so much to the town."

Wants To Go Fishing

"How long do you expect to stay here," he was asked.

He fingered his helmet style hat which is the type worn in tropical regions, and there was a boyish twinkle in his eyes as he replied: "I don't know—but there is one thing sure I'm not going to leave until I go fishing with some of my old friends at Muddy like we used to do when we were boys."

And so Prof. Smith is here wanting to see anyone and every one he ever knew in Sedalia and his old friends may find him at the Terry hotel where he is stopping. Prof. Smith, whose career took him thousands of miles away and yet whose memories brought him back to a spring in Missouri where he could renew his boyhood friendships and make new ones in Sedalia, the spot he never forgot.

Character and Soil Are Basic U. S. Resources

So Speaker at The Rotary Club Tells Members

Gene Wetherell, on the staff of the Bible college of the University of Missouri, a corporation with the College of Agriculture, was the speaker at the noon day Rotary meeting at Bothwell hotel.

Roy Keller presided over the meeting in the absence of the president, Z. Lyle Brown, and the vice president, the Rev. J. Fred King, who are attending the conference at St. Joseph.

Invocation was by Dr. T. W. Croxton and Dick Snow was song leader.

Visitors were M. K. Ream, guest of Dick Snow, and Rotarian Al Coonrod, of Warrensburg, and Larry Griffith, of Port Allegheny, Pa.

An announcement was made that the International Service luncheon in St. Joseph District Conference will be conducted by the Sedalia Rotary Club, with the president, Z. Lyle Brown, presiding. The "Star Spangled Banner" will be led by Emory Bowman and the invocation will be given by the Rev. J. Fred King. An address will be given by Ray C. Lippard on the subject: "International Forums."

Dr. Diemer Speaker

The main address will be given by George W. Diemer, president of Central Missouri State College, Warrensburg, the incoming governor of the 13th District, Rotary International.

At the banquet on Monday evening awards will be given for outstanding in the four objects of Rotary for the year 1947-48 by the president of the Rotary International to a club in the 134th District possessing the most outstanding record.

Mr. Wetherell, who was introduced by G .H. Routzong, said in part:

"The two basic resources of America are soil and character. Everything that we have eaten from childhood until we pass from this world comes from the soil, and every stitch of clothing that we wear comes from the soil. The financial structure of America owes its life to the nutrients and minerals of the soil. We plant our crops, they take the minerals and nutrients out of the soil, we feed these crops to cattle, hogs and sheep, and then when our stock is sold the money goes into the cash registers and vaults of big business. When our forefathers came to America there was nine inches of top soil in this nation, but today there is approximately five inches. The health and strength of this nation is dependent upon the conservation of this soil.

Basis Resource Is Character

"The other basic resource of America is Character. Without humble earnest character this nation cannot survive. The greatest institution for the building of character is the church. When the church goes down, the moral and spiritual atmosphere of the home and school goes down with it. Our soil has given us food and prosperity, our farm homes and rural churches have given us many of the great leaders of our nation. The rural church has given us 80% of our ministers and over 60% of the members of large city churches came from rural churches. The rural church is closing and passing today because of a lack of a trained ministry, because of soil erosion and denominational competition. Our colleges and seminaries have bypassed the rural church.

"The Bible College and the College of Agriculture of Missouri are seeking to meet this need. They are working together to train rural ministers in agriculture and religion, so that they will be able to develop a social, moral and spiritual community life around the rural church, and work with the county agent and home agent in leading farmers in soil conservation and balanced farming. Although this course has been established during the past two years, there are twelve young men who have enrolled and dedicated their lives to the rural ministry."

Grapefruit as Cattle Feed

LAKE ALFRED, Fla., May 13.—(AP)—Good-natured cattle can be fattened on a grape fruit diet.

But, an expert warned in a talk before cattlemen last night, it won't work if the animals have a trace of wildness. Dr. W. G. Kirk, vice director of Florida's cattle experiment station, said undue excitement seemed to disturb the wild ones. This keeps weight down.

The cattle like the taste of grape fruit—even more so if its fermented a bit, he said. Dr. Kirk added that meat from grape fruit-fed cattle is as good as western beef.

Strike Threat Hangs Over The Railroads

CIO-UAW Begin Second Day of Picketing Chrysler

By The Associated Press

The threat of a nationwide strike of CIO long distance telephone operators was added today to the already turbulent labor situation.

Seventy-six thousand CIO workers of Chrysler corporation are on strike. Still threatening is a nationwide tieup of the railroads.

In brief here is the breakdown:

Telephones—The CIO American Telephone Workers Union set up plans for a walkout of 25,000 long distance operators. President John J. Moran of the union said action of American Telephone and Telegraph company and "failure to find some method of effecting a peaceful settlement leaves us with but one choice—nationwide strike."

Rails—A spokesman for the three brotherhoods which called off a strike earlier this week said the unions will run trains as long as the government remains in control of the roads. But the minute private management takes over a strike will be called—unless there is a settlement in the meantime.

Automobiles—The CIO United Auto Workers began their second day of picketing in the wage dispute with Chrysler. A kitty of $8,000,000 being raised through assessments on members gave strength to reports the strike would be long, lasting possibly two months.

Bitter Strike

Farm Equipment—A long and bitter strike at the Caterpillar Tractor company in Peoria ended in the wake of an NLRB election. The CIO United Farm Equipment and Metal Workers union, which called the strike 35 days ago, was not on the ballot, but a runoff election between the rival CIO and AFL United Auto Workers unions will be necessary.

Steel — CIO President Philip Murray—also head of the steelworkers—said the major steel companies have refused to negotiate new contracts unless the union complies with Taft-Hartley law anti-Communist provisions. He told the USW convention in Boston that the executive board needs "power to make this enormous determination" of signing or not.

Strike Drags On

Meat — The CIO meat packing strike, dragging on since March 16, showed no changes.

Printing — The International Typographical Union was studying a "final offer" of $9 weekly increase from the Chicago Newspaper Publishers Association. A strike against the city's five major daily newspapers began Nov. 24.

Sheriff Asks For More Help

ST. JOSEPH, Mo., May 13—(AP)—Sheriff Gus Hillix planned to leave late today for Jefferson City to confer with Gov. Phil Donnelly after his request for 75 to 100 extra deputy sheriffs for strike duty was rejected.

Sheriff Hillix asked for the additional deputies today, saying that would be needed to maintain order in the picket line at the strike-bound Armour & Co. plant and in event of a livestock handlers' strike set for midnight.

The county court and the circuit court, sitting en blanc, debated the matter for four hours. The county court said its budget would not permit hiring additional deputies. Ten were hired earlier this week.

The sheriff said his men would have to patrol an area covering more than a square mile in extent, in addition to a 24-hour guard at the Armour plant.

The scheduled strike of the livestock handlers also would tie up the Swift & Co. plant, the largest here, and several independent plants.

Quiet prevailed at the Armour plant today. Only seven or eight men were on duty as pickets, but with the appearance of cars headed for the line, persons on the side-lines rushed to reinforced the barrier.

Operated Upon At Missouri Pacific Hospital

Spalding was charged with sale to a minor and serving of liquor to intoxicated persons, according to Harold Junge, inspector.

Family Moves Into Hotel

DAYTON, Ohio, May 13.—(AP)—A $50-a-week laborer, his wife and four children set up housekeeping today in a $12-a-day hotel suite after they were evicted from their home.

Charles Bremer, 32, announced he would bill the city for half the hotel cost. Bremer said the decision to move into the hotel last night followed a futile five-month quest for lodgings.

Removed from their rented house which had been sold, the parents and four children—ranging in age from one to five—began a day long hunt for help.

Last night, Bremer said he "gave up" and applied for a room at the hotel. The management, which said Bremer and his family would be treated as any other guests, assigned them to a two-room suite.

Bremer said they would remain in the hotel for five days "or until the city does something about finding us a place to live."

Three Automobiles Damaged In Collision

Three cars were involved in a collision at Third street and Massachusetts avenue, Thursday night at 9:20 o'clock, doing considerable damage estimated at around 600 dollars, to the three automobiles.

The accident occurred when Ed Wollet, Sweet Springs, was driving a 1946 Oldsmobile coach, east on Third street, and crashed into the rear of a parked 1937 Ford Coach, causing it to be driven into the rear of a 1941 Dodge coupe, which was parked directly ahead of the Ford on East Third street.

The Ford coach damaged considerably in the rear and front end, is owned by Harold Meyer, Otterville. Roy Groff, 665 East Thirteenth street is the owner of the Dodge coupe, which was also damaged in the rear and front end.

No one was injured.

Wollett is being held for investigation by the police.

Political Educational Club Is Organized

TULSA, Okla., May 13—(AP)—A Tulsa chapter of the Labor League of Political Education was organized here tonight to aid in electing to national office persons friendly to "the working man."

President Terry Beam of the Tulsa Trades Council (AFL), who called the meeting attended by some 1,000 persons, said the League's organization was "individual action outside the labor movement."

Beam said that League membership is "wide open to all persons who feel as we do.'

Gordon Shryock, secretary-treasurer of the teamsters union (AFL) and Fred Swick, business representative for the transport workers union (CIO), were named co-chairmen.

FRANKFURT, Germany, May 13.—(AP)—German women 5,000 strong marched on Adolf Hitler's former parade ground in Munich today in protest against food shortages.

Thousands of men were on strige against food shortages in the American zone, particularly in Munich, Nuernberg and Augsburg.

Truman's Farm Message Friday

WASHINGTON, May 13.—(AP)—President Truman said today he hopes to send a farm program message to congress tomorrow.

He told his weekly news conference, however, that he is not ready to announce the appointment of a new secretary of agriculture. He'll do that, he added, as soon as he gets the man.

Clinton Anderson resigned Monday as secretary to run for the senate in New Mexico, with the President's blessing.

Mr. Truman gave no indication what he will propose in tomorrow's message, regarded as a bid for the farmers' vote.

The Republican-controlled senate agriculture committee got the jump on Mr. Truman yesterday by laying down a long-range farm plan, calling for a revised price support program.

Democratic leaders had indicated earlier this week they would seek to win the farm ballot by plugging the theme that the Republican congress would take no action this year on a permanent farm program.

Says She Lives On Water Alone

NANKING, May 13.—(AP)—The strange case of a 20-year-old Chinese girl who said she lived on water alone for nine years was reported today by the newspaper Hsin Min Pao.

The newspaper said the public health director at Chungking had confirmed the report. The girl, Yang Mai, was said to have suffered no apparent ill effects.

"When she sleeps her face is covered by a crimson glow of exceeding beauty," the newspaper said to describe her healthy appearance.

Hsin Min Pao said the girl, a resident of Szechwan province, went to live with a herd of cattle nine years ago when her stepmother abused her.

A doctor and a nurse have been sent from Nanking to investigate.

BUDAPEST, Hungary, May 13.—(AP)—Hungary and Poland signed today a five-year economic agreement.

They Really Have Complaint

JEFFERSON CITY, May 13—(AP)—Residents of Napton, Mo., want to be connected to Southwestern Bell Telephone Company's lines at Marshall, Mo., because now, they say, they can't call anyone but their own neighbors.

In fact, since December they haven't been able to phone even their neighbors, they told the Missouri Public Service Commission today.

At present they are connected with a privately owned exchange at Arrow Rock. The service through that exchange, the 28 Napton residents said in their petition, is "totally inadequate" because:

1. They can't call anyone but immediate neighbors.
2. All their business is transacted through Marshall, but they can't reach Marshall by phone.
3. Since last December they have had no service at all. (They didn't explain what had happened to the service since then.)

They described themselves as residents of Arrow Rock township in Saline county.

President and Cabinet Cannot Be Forced to Divulge Secrets

WASHINGTON, May 13—(AP)—President Truman today defied congress to get confidential information from the White House or the cabinet.

He told a news conference that congress has no right to confidential records of members of his cabinet.

He said he would veto any legislation requiring such records and that he did not believe the veto would be overridden.

The courts have held repeatedly, he said, that the president and his cabinet cannot be forced to divulge confidential information.

Congressional committee workers and officials in executive agencies appear likely to be the only persons subject to jail terms under a so-called "secrets" bill now pending.

The dual purpose of the measure — still on the unfinished business list after a day of house debate yesterday — is to (1) force executive agencies created by congress to give information to congressional committees and (2) punish those who divulge the information after it is declared confidential.

Ready for a vote when the house adjourned yesterday was an amendment by Rep. Brown (R-Ohio) specifically excluding from the penalty provision individuals other than congressmen and committee employes.

'Trugh Serum' Successful In Alcholism

Particularly Useful Where it Arises From Nervous Tension

SEATTLE, May 13—(AP)—A group of doctors reported today that the so-called "truch serum—sodium pentothal—has been used with considerable success in treating the more difficult cases of alcoholism.

They said the treatment is particularly useful with persons whose alcoholism results from nervous tension.

Dr. Paul O'Hollaren, assistant chief of staff of the Shadel Sanitarium here, made the report. The work was done under the sponsorship of the Research Foundation for Alcoholism, starting in 1941.

O'Hollaren said that of 210 persons given the treatment, 60 per cent were cured of alcoholism.

First to be treated, he said, were difficult cases selected from 4,000 patients. Three hundred were chosen and results are now complete for 210.

Some Effects

He said the sodium pentothal had these effects in helping bring about a cure:

1. While the patient is under the influence of the drug he gives the doctors much information. This is used to help the person understand his problems and solve them.
2. At the same time, the drug makes the person talk freely. He feels better when he has the problems "of his chest."
3. The drug calms the person and this calm last for some time after its use. This helps the person to "get a grip on himself."
4. While under the influence of the drug, the person is often given suggestions to follow out in his walking hours. He does not remember these but they help him to act in a way to avoid tensions.

Year's Treatment

O'Hollaren said the treatment requires at least a year. Frequent conferences are held with the doctor to work out the person's problems. When nervous tension begins to build up, sodium pentothal is used again.

Dr. Walter L. Voegtlin, the sanitarium's chief of staff, estimated that about 30 per cent of the alcoholics are of the type whose troubles stem from nervous tension.

U. S.-Soviet News in Russia

MOSCOW, May 13.—(AP)—Soviet-American relations dominated the news today in Russian newspapers and on the radio.

All papers published a synopsis of Secretary of State George C. Marshall's news conference yesterday and President Truman's statement of the day before concerning the diplomatic exchange last week between Ambassador Walter B. Smith and Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov.

All of them also carried Henry Wallace's open letter to Prime Minister Stalin and accounts of his address at Madison Square Garden, New York, Tuesday night, including his six recommended measures for improvement of relations between Russia and the United States.

The Russian people thus were told, in the Truman-Marshall story, that no two-power conference on Soviet-American relations is contemplated by the United States.

They also were told, in the Wallace story, that Wallace believes there has been an "extraordinary use of the veto" in the United Nations and that he termed this "a symptom of lack of confidence between the two countries."

Object to 'The Iron Curtain

CLEVELAND, May 13.—(AP)—Leaflets attacking the motion picture, "The Iron Curtain," were passed out here last night at the show's Cleveland opening.

Uniformed policemen were stationed at both theater entrances, and detectives were among the audience. No disturbances were reported.

The leaflets said, "Don't buy this ticket to war." The movie is advertised as being based on "the personal life of Igor Gouzenko, former code clerk, USSR embassy in Ottawa, Canada."

The leaflets were signed by the "Cleveland Committee Against War Propaganda, 1975 E. 61st St." The Cleveland Council of American-Soviet Friendship is listed at that address in the telephone directory.

This gives him 73 pledged and claimed without challenge in six states.

Gov. Thomas E. Dewey gained one delegate to run his nailed down total to 126 and still lead the pack. It takes 548 to nominate.

Federal Judge Rules Bull To Be a Celibate

Buyers Not Held Responsible For Bid of $10,000

KANSAS CITY, May 13—(AP)—Federal Judge Richard M. Duncan admitted today he never before met up with a bull like Eileenmere, 627th.

The encounter, judicially speaking, took place in federal court, and not in a pasture, where the judge said he had met many bulls of the common, snorting, pawing, plebian kind.

Eileenmere, 627, started life with a promise. He won the grand championships at 11 shows and the champion of his class at another. This all before he was two years old.

Enter now J. R. Penney, Missouri-born chain store merchant, and Orin L. James, his associate in an Aberdeen-Angus farm near Chillicothe, Mo. They decided they could use an up and coming bull like Eileenmere, 627th, so James went to an auction where the Miller Brothers of Arcola, Ill., were to sell the animal.

James told the court he found the hooves of the bull pretty long and added that his hind quarters appeared abnormal, with one hip larger than the other.

Mentioned It To Auctioneer

He said he called this to the attention of the auctioneer but was given a quarranty that the condition would not interfere wih the use of the bull for breeding purposes.

He bought the bull for $10,600. Eileenmere, 627th, was brought to the Penney & James farm. Handlers trimmed the hooves and he seemed to walk pretty well, James related. But walk and eat was about the extent of his activiies. He showed no interest in the opposite sex, witnesses said.

This is how Judge Duncan told it in holding that Penney & James could not be held to the $10,600 bid:

"Alas, while his meretricious charms have made him a champion in the show ring, they were unavailing in the mating pen. The cruel hand of fate destined the great Eileenmere, 627, to be a celibrate. Never could he become the proud junior sir of so noble a herd, with ambitious vision no doubt of becoming, in time, a prouder senior sire; never would he know the proud, chest-expanding pride of seeing his own flesh and blood walk the green pastures among a heard over which he would majestically preside. There would be no Eileenmere, 628th."

A Counter Claim

The judge further ruled on a counter-claim by Penny & James, in which they contended they spent $1,418.80 caring for and feeding the animal while in their possesion. The judge held the amount excessive, in that Eileenmere 627th did not merit such luxurious maintenance, and cut the figure to $750.

In his decision, the judge added his regret that he had agreed to decide the case himself. He said he would rather have had it tried before a jury of stockmen and farmers "wo would have been more familiar with the commercial love life of a blooded bull than I."

Cards Shutout By Giants 5-0

ST. LOUIS, May 13—(AP)—Ray Poat pitched the New York Giants into first place in the National League today by shutting out the erswhile leaders, the St. Louis Cardinals, 5-0 on two hits.

Single by Enos Slaughter in the second inning and a double by Red Schoendienst in the third were the only blows yielded by Poat, who walked only three batters and fanned three.

For five innings, Poat and the Cards' Red Munger were engaged in a scoreless mound duel. The Giants finally broke through in the sixth inning, scoring twice on a walk, single, two errors by Schoendienst and Buddy Kerr's fly ball.

Munger got into another jam in the eighth inning when the Giants scored their third run on three walks and a double.

Johnny Mize walked to start the frame and moved to third on Willard Marshall's double. After Buddy Kerr grounded out, Mickey Livingston was purposely walked to load the bases. Jack Lohrke flied out to short right but Munger than walked Poat to force in a run. Ted Wilks relieved Munger and got Billy Rigney to bounce into a forced out to end the inning.

The Giants scored their final two runs in the ninth on four singles and a walk at the expense of Ken Johnson and Gerry Staley.

Whitey Lockman and Willard Marshall paced the Giants' 11-hit attack, collecting three hits apiece.

Three Killed In Hotel Blast

OKLAHOMA CITY, May 13.—(AP)—Three persons were injured in an explosion which blew out all windows of the 7-story Auto hotel today near First and Broadway, in the heart of Oklahoma City.

Fire Chief G. A. McAlpine said the explosion apparently came from igniting of gasoline fumes in the basement while a gasoline truck was in an alley between the Auto hotel and the Medical Arts building.

Most of the damage was confined to the basement and first floor of the building. Six automobiles were damaged.

Debris was scattered in the street between the damaged building and the Skirvin Tower hotel.

The most seriously injured apparently was a woman, identified at St. Anthony's hospital as Margaret Jane Johnston. She was walking at the alley-way when the explosion occurred. The woman's legs were broken and she has internal and head injuries.

Others injured were two Negro employes of the Auto hotel.

Herman Ross was taken to Mercy hospital. He was working in the basement at the time of the explosion.

Earl Sande Free In Narcotics Indictment

BROOKLYN, May 13—(AP)—A federal grand jury today refused to indict Earl Sande, horse trainer and onetime famous jockey, on a charge of illegal possession of narcotics.

The jury reported to Judge Leo Rayfiel without returning a true bill after investigating the case, which had resulted in Sande's suspension by the Jockey Club.

Sande was arraigned before U. S. Commissioner Edward E. Fay May 3 after one of his horses showed evidence to investigators of having been drugged when it won a race at Jamaica.

Rider of three Kentucky derby winners, the former jockey has been free without bail since waiting examination at the arraignment.
